Industrial Disputes (Amendment)
Act, No. 32 of 1990

[Certified on 31st August, 1990]

L. D.—O 3/89

AN ACT TO AMEND THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT
BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, No. 32 of 1990.

Short
title.

2. Section 31A of the Industrial Disputes Act, (hereinafter referred to as the "principal enactment") is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of that section of the following new subsection :—

Amendment
of section 31A of Chapter 131.

" (2) The Minister in charge of the subject of Justice may, with the concurrence of the Minister in charge of the subject of Labour, make regulations, prescribing—

- (a) the manner in which applications under section 31B may be made to a labour tribunal; and
- (b) the procedure to be observed by a labour
tribunal in any proceedings before that tribunal under this Part.

3. Section 31c of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted
therefor :—

Replacement
of section
31C of the principal
enactment.

"Duties and powers of
labour
tribunals in regard to applications
under section 31B.

31c. (1) Where an application under section 31B is made to a labour tribunal, it shall be the duty of the tribunal to make all such inquiries into that application and hear
all such evidence as the tribunal may consider necessary and thereafter make, not later than six months from the date of such application, such order as may appear to the tribunal to be just and equitable.

(2) A labour tribunal conducting an inquiry shall observe the procedure prescribed under section 31A, in respect of the conduct of proceedings before the tribunal."

Replacement
of section 31D of the principal
enactment.

4. Section 31D of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor:—

“Appeal to High Court
on question
of law
arising
out of the order of a
tribunal.

31D. (1) Every order made by a labour tribunal at the conclusion of proceedings on an application made under section 31B, shall be pronounced forthwith or within a reasonable time at a sitting of the tribunal on a date which shall be notified in advance to all the parties to such application.

(2) Save as provided in subsection (3) an order of a labour tribunal shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

(3) Where the workman who, or the trade union which, makes an application to a labour tribunal, or the employer to whom that application relates is dissatisfied with the order of the tribunal on that application, such workman, trade union or employer may, by written petition in which the other party is mentioned as the respondent, appeal from that order on a question of law, to the High Court established under Article 154P of the Constitution, for the Province within which such labour tribunal is situated.

(4) Every employer who—

(a) appeals to a High Court established under Article 154P of the Constitution, against an order of a labour tribunal or makes an application in revision against any such order; or

(b) makes an application for the issue of an order in the nature of a writ of certiorari, prohibition, procedendo or mandamus against the President of a labour tribunal, in respect of an order made by such President,

shall furnish to such labour tribunal, security in cash—

(i) in any case where the order which is the subject of such appeal or application directs only the payment of a sum of money to the workman, of an amount equal to such sum ;

(ii) in any case where the order which is the subject of such appeal or application directs only the reinstatement of the workman, of an amount equal to twelve times the monthly salary or wages of such workman at the time his services were terminated ;

(iii) in any case where the order which is the subject of such appeal or application directs both the payment of a sum of money to the workman and his re-instatement, of an amount equal to such sum and twelve times the monthly salary or wages of such workman at the time his services were terminated.

Where an employer is required under the preceding paragraphs of this subsection to furnish security of an amount equal to twelve times the monthly salary or wages of a workman, such monthly salary or wages shall, in the case of a daily paid workman, be deemed to be twenty-six times the daily wages of such workman.

(5) The President of every labour tribunal shall cause all moneys furnished as security under subsection (4), to be deposited in an account bearing interest, in any approved bank in Sri Lanka.

(6) Every petition of appeal to a High Court established under Article 154P shall bear uncanceled stamps to the value of five rupees and in every case where the applicant is required to furnish security, be accompanied by a certificate issued under the hand of the President of the labour tribunal to the effect that the appellant has furnished such security. The petition of appeal shall be filed in the High Court within a period of thirty days (including the day on which the order appealed from was made but excluding Sundays and Public Holidays) reckoned from the date of the order from which the appeal is preferred.

(7) A High Court established under Article 154<sup>r</sup> of the Constitution shall hear and finally dispose of an appeal preferred to it under subsection (3) from an order of a labour tribunal or an application in revision made against any such order, within six months of the date on which such appeal or application was filed in the High Court.

(8) Every application referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) shall be accompanied by a certificate issued under the hand of the President of the labour tribunal to the effect that the applicant has furnished the security he is required to furnish by that subsection.

(9) The provisions of Chapter XXVIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, relating to appeals from Magistrates' Courts to the Court of Appeals shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in regard to all matters connected with the hearing and disposal of an appeal preferred under this section.

(10) In this section—

“approved bank” means any bank, which the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance, having regard to the interests of the depositors may appoint from time to time for the purposes of this section, by notification published in the Gazette; and

“employer” includes a person who has ceased to be an employer and is referred to in subsection (6) of section 31B.”

5. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 31D, of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 31DD, 31DDD and 31DDDD of that enactment:—

Insertion of
new sections
31DD, 31DDD
and
