Amendment
of section 14 of the principal enactment.

5. Section 14 of the principal enactment is hereby amended in paragraph (a) of that section as follows:—

(2) by the substitution in sub-paragraph (xvi) of that paragraph for the words "partnership were shared ; and", of the words "partnership were shared ;" ;

(2) by the substitution in sub-paragraph (xvi) of that paragraph for the words "to whom such gain arises.", of the words "to whom such gain arises ; and" ; and

(3) by the insertion immediately after sub-paragraph (xvi) of the following sub-paragraphs:—

(xvii) the sale, on or after January 1, 1990, of any property held by any individual (other than any property which immediately prior to such sale formed part of the assets of any business), if the full sale proceeds are invested, within one year from the date of such sale but on or before April 1, 1992, in the purchase of any ordinary share, other than any existing, share, in any company—

(a) referred to in section 17C or in section 22DDD or in section 22DDDD, or

- (b) carrying on an undertaking referred to in section 17E, if the sum so invested is certified by such company as being solely for the purpose of expanding the productive capacity of such undertaking:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall not apply if an allowance in respect of such investment is deducted under section 31, from the assessable income of that individual for any year of assessment:

Provided further that where any change of ownership of any share so purchased occurs, otherwise than by the death of that individual, within five years after the date of such purchase, an additional assessment consisting of the difference between—

- (i) the income tax to which such individual would have been liable for the year of assessment in which such capital gain arose had the exemption from income tax granted under this sub-paragraph not been granted in respect of such part of such capital gain as is attributable to the sum invested in the purchase of the share in respect of which such change of ownership occurs; and
- (ii) the income tax charge for the year of assessment in which such capital gain arose, shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, be made for the year of assessment in which such sale was made in respect of that individual and accordingly, the provisions of this Act relating to notice of assessment, appeal and other proceedings shall apply to such additional assessment.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph the expression "such part of such capital gain as is attributable to the sum invested in the purchase of the share in respect of which such change of ownership occurs"

Inland Revenue (Amendment)
Act, No. 42 of 1990

means the sum which bears to the sum invested in the purchase of the share in respect of which the change of ownership occurs the same proportion as the proportion which the entirety of such capital gain bears to the full proceeds of the sale of the property referred to in this paragraph ;

(xviii) the sale, by any venture capital company referred to in section 22DDD of any share or stock, held by it in any other company ;

(xix) the sale, by any unit trust or any mutual fund referred to in section 22DDD, of any share or stock held by, such unit trust or mutual fund in any other company ;

(xx) the sale, by any person of any unit held by such person in any unit trust or any mutual fund after one year from the date of acquisition by such person, of such unit ;

(xxi) the change of ownership of any share in a quoted public company after one year from the date of acquisition by any person of such share.'.

Insertion of new sections
17B, 17C, 17D
17E, 17F and

- (c) is engaged only in carrying on any undertaking which provides in any location, infra-structure facilities including floor space of not less than two thousand square feet each for the exclusive use of each of not less than twenty enterprises for the production or manufacture, in that location, of goods or commodities:

Provided that such undertaking is not an undertaking formed by the splitting up, reconstruction or acquisition of any business which was previously in existence.

Exemption from income tax of the profits and income of off-shore companies from certain on-shore Services.

17E. (1) The profits and income within the meaning of paragraph (a) of section 3, (other than any profits and income from the sale of capital assets), of any off-shore company registered under Part VIII of the Companies Act, No. 17 of 1982, from any undertaking referred to in subsection (2), shall be exempt from income tax for a period of five years from the commencement of the year of assessment in which such company is so registered, if such profits and income (less any amount as the Commissioner-General considers reasonable expense) are remitted to Sri Lanka.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply to any undertaking which—

- (a) is approved by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette on or before April 1, 1992, as an undertaking to which this section applies; and
- (b) is engaged on-shore, in off-shore transactions relating to the provision of services in insurance or aviation or underwriting of loans or syndication of loans or international consultancy or in any combination of two or more of such services.

Exemption from income tax of profits and income from the expansion of industrial undertakings.

17F. (1) The profits and income attributable to the expansion of any undertaking for the production or manufacture of goods or commodities and referred to in subsection (2), shall be exempt from income tax for a period of five years reckoned from the relevant date.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply to any undertaking—

- (a) which has incurred, within a period of twelve months from the relevant date, new capital expenditure of not less than five million rupees in amount in expanding its productive capacity; and
- (b) which is, on the recommendation of the Minister in charge of the subject of Industries approved by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette on or before April 1, 1992 to be an undertaking to which this section applies; and
- (c) in respect of which the Commissioner-General is satisfied that the number of employees employed, on the last day of the year commencing on the relevant date, in such undertaking and in respect of each of whom regular contributions to any provident fund approved by the Commissioner-General are being made, exceeds the maximum number of employees, who were employed in that undertaking for an unbroken period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the relevant date, by not less than twenty five:

Provided that where at any time during any year of assessment within the five years referred to in subsection (1), the number of employees employed in such undertaking and in respect of every one of whom regular contributions to any provident fund approved by the Commissioner-General are being made, does not exceed such maximum by twenty-five or more, such profits and income of that undertaking for that year of assessment as are referred to in subsection (1), shall not be exempt from income tax.

(3) For the purposes of this section and in relation to any industrial undertaking—

(a) the expression “profits and income attributable to the expansion” in relation to any year of assessment means the excess of—

(i) the profits and income, within the meaning of paragraph (a) of section 3, (other than any profits and income from the sale of any capital asset), of that undertaking for that year of assessment, reduced by ten per-centum or such other percentage of such profits and income, as may be specified by the Minister having regard to the rate of inflation which prevailed in Sri Lanka in or about that year of assessment by notice published in the Gazette, over

(ii) the annual average of such profits and income of that undertaking, such average being computed for a period of three years immediately preceding the relevant date where the undertaking has been carrying on business for a period of three years or more prior to the relevant date or for the entire period during which it has been carrying on business, where the undertaking has been carrying on business for a period of less than three years prior to the relevant date ;

- (b) the expression "relevant date", means the first day of any calendar month not earlier than April 1990, and not later than March 1992, and selected by the person carrying on that undertaking or where the undertaking is carried on by a partnership, by the precedent partners of that partnership, and notified to the Commissioner-General in writing not later than thirty days from the last date of that month :

Provided that where the relevant date is not so notified to the Commissioner-General the relevant date shall be deemed to be April 1, 1990 ;

- (c) the expression, "new capital expenditure" means expenditure incurred by the person who, or the partnership which carries on that undertaking in the purchase of new productive equipment, (other than any land or any building) which is intended to increase its productive capacity :

Provided that expenditure incurred in the purchase of productive equipment which is not new shall be deemed not to be new capital expenditure unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General that —

- (i) the purchase of that productive equipment is economically justifiable ; and
- (ii) the purchase price represents the fair market value of such productive equipment:

Provided further that any expenditure incurred for the replacement after the relevant date of any equipment which formed part of the assets of that undertaking on or before the relevant date, shall be deemed not to be new capital expenditure.

Exemption
from income tax
of the profits
and income from any new bus used for the transport of passengers.

17G. (1) The profits and income within the meaning of paragraph (a) of section 3, of any undertaking for the transport of passengers, from the operation of any omni bus referred to in subsection (2), shall be exempt from income tax for a period of three years from the date of the first registration of that bus by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply to any omni bus which—

(a) is new ;

(b) is first registered by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles on or after January 1, 1990 but prior to April 1, 1992 ;
and

(c) has a seating capacity for not less than thirty persons excluding the driver.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "the profits and income from any omnibus" in relation to any year of assessment and to any undertaking for the transport of passengers, means the sum which bears to the gross receipts from the transport of passengers by that omni bus the same proportion as the profits and income of that undertaking from the transport of passengers bears to the aggregate gross receipts of that undertaking from the transport of passengers by all the omni buses operated by that undertaking.

7. Section 20B of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the substitution for the words "foreign exchange value of the exports related to such supply.", of the words "foreign exchange value of the exports related to such supply :

Amendment
of section 20B of the

Provided that where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General that it is inexpedient or impracticable to cover such supply by a letter of credit in the aforesaid manner, he shall direct that notwithstanding that such supply is not so covered, the exemption granted under this section shall apply if—

- (a) such supply is covered by a letter of credit opened in a bank in Sri Lanka or such other documentary evidence as is required to satisfy himself that the exports relating to such supply were in fact made, is adduced; and
- (b) the receipt of the foreign exchange value of the exports relating to such supply is certified by the bank to which the foreign exchange value of such exports is remitted.”.
