(c) if he has been adjudged by a competent Court to be of unsound mind ;

(d) if having been adjudged an insolvent or bankrupt by a competent court whether in Sri Lanka or elsewhere.

he has not been granted by a competent court, a certificate to the effect that his insolvency or bankruptcy has arisen wholly or partly from unavoidable losses or misfortune; or

(e) if he has been convicted by a competent court, whether in Sri Lanka or elsewhere, of any offence involving moral turpitude and punishable with imprisonment or similar punishment and has not been granted a pardon.

(2) The Board shall take a decision on any application for registration, within a period of not more than one month of the receipt of such application, and shall within one month of its decision notify the applicant of its decision and reasons therefor.

Removal of name
from

8g. (1) The Board shall have power to remove the name of any person from the appropriate register—

(a) if such person ceases to possess the qualification which entitled him to registration; or

(b) if such person become subject to any disqualification mentioned in subsection (1) of section 8f; or

(c) if the registration of such person has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation;

(d) if such person, being a member of the Institute, has been disenrolled under the provisions of subsection (2) or subsection (3) of section 8; or

(e) if such person, not being a member of the Institute, has been found after due inquiry by an Investigating Committee or a Disciplinary Committee constituted under see-tion 8 of this Law, guilty of professional misconduct, and where has been no appeal against the report of the Investigating Committee or Disciplinary Committee.

(2) The Board may, of its own motion or upon the application in that behalf, of any person referred to in paragraph (b) or (e) restore the registration of such person on a recommendation made in that behalf by the Council.

(3) Where any member has been suspended from membership under proviso to subsection (3) of section 8 of this law, the name of such person shall be entered in the appropriate Register to be kept and maintained by the Board for the purpose indicating the period of suspension.

(4) Where the Council considers it necessary in the national interest, that the fact of such suspension should be brought to the notice of the public, it may cause to be published such fact in any national newspaper in Sinhala, Tamil and English.

Maintenance of Registers.

8H. (1) Where any Chartered Architect, Architect or an Architectural Licentiate ceases to possess the qualifications which entitled him to registration or becomes subject to any disqualifications set out in subsection (1) of section 8F it shall be the duty of such Chartered Architect, Architect or an Architectural Licentiate to notify the Registrar forthwith. The Registrar shall thereupon communicate it to the Board.

(2) Where a Chartered Architect, Architect or Architectural Licentiate registered under this Law changes his business or residential address it shall be the duty of that Chartered Architect, Architect or Architectural Licentiate to notify forthwith the Registrar, who shall enter the new address in the appropriate register.

Provided, however, the Board may in its discretion re-enter the name of such Chartered Architect, Architect or Architectural Licentiate on the appropriate register upon payment of the amount in default.

Appeals against the decisions of the Board.

8J. (1) Any person dissatisfied with a decision of the Board, refusing to register any person as a Chartered Architect, Architect or Architectural Licentiate or suspending or cancelling the registration of any person as a Chartered Architect, Architect or Architectural Licentiate may appeal from that decision to the Court of Appeal.

(2) Every such appeal shall be in writing, shall set out the matters of law relied on and name the Board as respondent thereto, and shall be lodged with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, within twenty one days of the communication of the decision of the Board."

Amendment of section 8
of the principal enactment Insertion of new section 11A
in the principal

8. Section 8 of the principal enactment is hereby amended in paragraph (b) of that section by the substitution for the word "Ceylon" of the word "Sri Lanka".

9. The following section is inserted immediately after section 11 and shall have effect as section 11A of the principal enactment:—

"Board of Trustee of the
Sri Lanka
Institute of Architects

11A. (1) A Board consisting of the President, the Senior Vice-President, the Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer of the Council, for the time being, and the immediate past President of the Council is hereby established as the Board of Trustees of the Sri Lanka Institute of Architects (hereinafter referred to as "the Board of Trustees") to administer and manage the property of the Institute.

(2) The Board of Trustees shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession under the name of "the Board of Trustees of the Sri Lanka Institute of Architects", with full power to sue and be sued in that name.

(3) The Board of Trustees shall have power—

(a) to acquire, hold, take or give, on lease or hire, mortgage, pledge, sell and exchange or otherwise alienate, encumber or dispose of, any immovable or movable property, for the benefit of the Institute;

(b) to invest the funds of the trust for the benefit of the Institute, and to utilize such funds for setting up benefit schemes, welfare schemes, housing schemes, insurance schemes and other social services schemes for the benefit of the members, officers and servants of the Institute, and their dependants;

(c) to set up and maintain libraries and an architectural archive.

(4) All property held by the Institute, on the day preceding the date on which this section comes into force, shall, with effect from the date on which this section comes into force, vest in the Board of Trustees, who shall hold such property for the benefit of the Institute.

(5) From and after the coming into force of this section the Institute shall cease to exercise—

(a) the powers conferred on it by paragraph (a) of section 4, in so far as those powers relate to immovable property;

(b) the powers conferred on it by paragraph (c) of section 4, in so far as those powers relate to investment of funds;

(6) (a) The Board of Trustees shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept of the income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and all other transactions of the Board of Trustees.

(b) The accounts of the Board of Trustees shall be audited by a qualified auditor or auditors appointed by such Board.

(c) In this subsection, "qualified auditor" means—

(i) an individual who being a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka or of any other institution established by law, possesses a certificate to practise as an Accountant issued by the Council of such Institute; or

(ii) a firm of Accountants, each of the resident partners of which being a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka or of any other Institute established by law possesses a certificate to practise as an Accountant issued by the Council of such Institute.

(7) The provisions of this section shall come into force on 25th day of September, 1996.

10. Section 12 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) by the substitution for the marginal note to that section, of the following marginal note:—

"Restriction on use of titles and practices";

(2) in subsection (2) of that section by the deletion of the words "of Architects";

(3) by the insertion of the following subsection immediately after subsection (3) of that section:—

" (3) The Council may permit the formation of any private company by persons who are corporate members of the Institute or Architects registered under this Law, or persons registered under this Law, or persons registered under any Law, for the time being in force as Engineers, Planners and other professionals, the memorandum or articles of which ensure that all the Directors of such company and their successors shall be persons, registered under this Law or persons registered as Engineers, Planners or other prescribed professionals to take and use the titles "Chartered Architects" or "Architects" or "Chartered Architects and Engineers" or "Architects and Engineers", as the case may be, as part of the description of such company (provided the Directors of such company forward the memorandum and Articles of such company and any amendments thereto, to the Institute together with a declaration made annually by all Directors of the company for the time being that they shall abide by the code of professional conduct of the Institute) and it shall be lawful for each one of the Directors and share holders of such company who are duly qualified and entitled to practise as such, to append to his name the title and initials which he is entitled to take and use under the provisions of this section."

(4) by the repeal of subsection (4) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following subsections:—

' (4) except as provided in this section, no person, firm, body of persons, or company shall take or use the titles "Chartered Architect", "Chartered Architects", "Architect", "Architects", "Architectural Licentiate", "Architectural Licentiates or the Initials "F.I.A. (Sri Lanka)" or "A.I.A. (Sri Lanka)", or any abbreviation thereof or any equivalent thereto, in any language, whether with or without any addition thereto, or use the same as the name or description or part of the name or description of any firm, business or body of persons, or in any book, journal or other publication dealing with Architecture, design or the practice of the profession of architecture.

(5) Every Chartered Architect, Architects or Architectural Licentiate, registered under this Law, shall be entitled to take or use the title "Chartered Architect", "Architect", or Architectural Licentiate", as the case may be.

(6) A firm, each of the partners of which is a Chartered Architect or an Architect or an Architectural Licentiate, registered under this Law, shall be entitled to take and use the title "Chartered Architect", "Architect" or "Architectural Licentiate", as the case may be;

(7) Where on or more of the partners of a firm are Chartered Architects, Architects or Architectural Licentiates, registered under this Law, the Council may permit such firm to take and use the title "Chartered Architect", "Chartered Architects", "Architect", "Architects" or "Architectural Licentiate" or "Architectural Licentiates" as the case may be, as part of the description of such firm provided that the remaining partners are members of such other prescribed professions.

(8) Where the partners of a firm consist of one or more Architectural Licentiate as well as other persons who are non-Corporate Members or Registered Members of the Institute the title "Chartered Architects" shall not be used as the description, or part of the description, of such firm:

Provided, however that it shall be lawful for each of the partners of such firm to append to his name the title and initials which he is entitled to take and use under the provisions of this section.'
