Cur. adv. vult.

February 14, 1946. SOERTSZ S.P.J.—

The appellants have preferred an appeal in a caso regarding a right of way, and have not condescended to place before me the two most important documents in the case, namely P 1 and P 2. They probably expect me to look at the original record to acquaint myself with maps and plans. This I refuse to do. It is for an appellant to see that the typescript copies prepared for the Court of Appeal contain all the documents necessary for a consideration of his appeal.

I see no reason to disturb the findings of the Commissioner.

I dismiss the appeal with costs.

Appeal dismissed.
