*Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024*

[Certified on 13th of September, 2024]

L.D.—O. 19/2022

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE RECIPROCAL RECOGNITION, REGISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT IN SRI LANKA OF JUDGMENTS OF COURTS OF OTHER COUNTRIES; AND TO REPEAL THE ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS ORDINANCE (CHAPTER 93) AND THE RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS ORDINANCE (CHAPTER 94); AND TO PROVIDE FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows: -

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act, No. 49 of 2024.

Short title and date of operation

(2) The provisions of this Act, other than the provisions of this section shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette (in this Act referred to as the “appointed date”).

(3) The provisions of this section shall come into operation on the date on which the Bill becomes an Act of Parliament.

PART I

APPLICATION OF THE ACT

2. (1) Where-

Application of the Act

(a) (i) the Government of Sri Lanka and the Government of any foreign country enter into any treaty as respects the reciprocal

 Act, No. 49 of 2024*

recognition, registration and enforcement of judgments of the courts of Sri Lanka and of such foreign country; or

(ii) any written law in force on the day immediately preceding the appointed date provides for the reciprocal recognition, registration and enforcement in Sri Lanka of judgments of the courts of a foreign country; and

(b) the Minister is satisfied that by extending the provisions of this Part of this Act to judgments of the courts of such foreign country a substantial reciprocity of treatment will be assured as respects the recognition, registration and enforcement in such foreign country of judgments of the courts of Sri Lanka,

the Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette, declare that the provisions of this Part of this Act shall extend to the judgments of such courts of that foreign country as are specified in such Order.

(2) The Minister may, if he considers it appropriate, seek the views of the Minister assigned the subject of Foreign Affairs and the Attorney-General in making an Order under subsection (1).

(3) An Order made under subsection (1) shall-

(a) come into operation on the date of publication of such Order in the Gazette or on such later date as may be specified therein; and

Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and 3
Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024

- (b) subject to the provisions of subsection (4), remain in force so long as may be specified in such Order or for such period as the treaty or the written law referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) remains in force.

(4) The Minister may, having regard to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1), by a subsequent Order amend, vary or revoke any Order previously made under that subsection.

(5) (a) Every Order made by the Minister shall, within three months after its publication in the Gazette, be brought before Parliament for approval.

(b) Any Order which is not so approved shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything duly done thereunder.

(6) A notification of the date on which an Order is deemed to be rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.

3. (1) The provisions of this Act shall apply to a judgment of a court of a foreign country specified in the Order published under section 2, only if such judgment is final and conclusive as between the parties to such judgment, and-

Judgments to which this Act shall apply

- (a) any one or more of the following conditions are satisfied by the applicant: -
- (i) the judgment-creditor or the judgment-debtor was a resident of the country of the original court at the time such judgment-creditor or the judgment-debtor, as the case may be, became a party to the proceedings in the original court;

Registration Ordinance (Chapter 112), whether such marriage had been contracted prior to or after the appointed date or such judgment had been entered prior to or after the appointed date, and –

- (i) either party to the marriage was domiciled in such country as at the date of the judgment;
- (ii) either party to the marriage was habitually resident in such country for a period not less than one year immediately before the date of the judgment;
- (iii) either party to the marriage was a national of such country as at the date of the judgment; or
- (iv) both parties have submitted to the jurisdiction of such court.

(2) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any tax, charge, fine or other penalty payable under a judgment of a court of a foreign country.

PART II

RECOGNITION, REGISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

4. An applicant may make an application in such form and manner accompanied by such information and documents as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, to the registering court for recognition, registration and enforcement of a foreign judgment –

Application for recognition, registration and enforcement of a foreign judgment

6 *Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and
 Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
 Act, No. 49 of 2024*

- (a) within ten years from the date of the final judgment along with a certificate issued by the relevant authority of the original court authenticating such judgment; and
- (b) by way of summary procedure in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XXIV of Part II of the Civil Procedure Code:

Provided however, the registering court may entertain an application made after ten years from the date of the final judgment if the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the court that the reasons for such delay are valid:

Provided further, the registering court shall not allow the parties to adduce any oral evidence, and shall conclude the proceedings on the petitions, statements of objections, affidavits and any other documents tendered by such parties within a period of six months from the date of application for the recognition, registration and enforcement of the foreign judgment.

Registration of a
judgment

5. (1) Upon receipt of an application for recognition, registration and enforcement of a foreign judgment under section 4, if the registering court is prima facie satisfied that, as at the date of the application –

- (a) such judgment is a judgment to which this Act applies;
- (b) the applicant has derived any right, interest, benefit, title, status or entitlement under the judgment given by the original court; and

Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and 7
Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024

- (c) the application has been made within the period specified in section 4, the registering court shall proceed to register such judgment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where a judgment is registered in terms of this Act, such registered judgment shall be deemed to have the same force and effect and the same control over the execution of such judgment as if it had been a judgment originally given in the registering court and entered on the date of registration.

(3) Where, as at the date of application for recognition and registration of a foreign judgment, a part of the relief awarded by the original court has been satisfied, the registering court may enforce the judgment only in respect of the unsatisfied part of the judgment.

6. (1) Where, upon registration of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage under section 5, it appears to the registering court that –

- (a) such foreign judgment was given inter parte, the registering court shall pronounce a declaration recognising such judgment in Sri Lanka; or
- (b) such foreign judgment was obtained ex parte, the registering court shall issue a notice to the other party to the marriage.

Recognition of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage in Sri Lanka

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the provisions of sections 59 to 71 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the service of notice.

8 *Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and
Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024*

(3) Where there is no objection made under section 7 within the period specified in the notice issued under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and upon the registering court being satisfied of the proper service of notice under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the registering court may pronounce a declaration recognising such foreign judgment.

Objections against recognition of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage in Sri Lanka

7. A respondent to an application for the recognition and registration of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage, upon receipt of a notice issued under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 6, may appear before the registering court and object to such application on the ground that-

- (a) the applicant has failed to satisfy any of the requirements set out in section 4;
- (b) there is fraud; or
- (c) there is a misrepresentation of facts relevant to the application and the affidavit made under section 4.

Refusal of objections and registration of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage

8. (1) Where the party who made an objection under section 7, fails to satisfy the registering court of the existence of any ground for the refusal of an application specified in section 7, the court may reject such objection by an order made in that behalf and shall pronounce a declaration recognising such foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage in respect of which such application is made.

(2) Such declaration shall have the effect of such foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage being recognised as if it had been issued by a competent court of Sri Lanka.

Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and 9
Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024

9. The court may grant and apportion costs for any application made under section 4, as the court deems fit. Court may grant costs

10. Where the registering court pronounces a declaration in the case of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage, recognising such judgment in Sri Lanka, the Registrar of the registering court shall send a copy of such declaration certified by such Registrar as true copy, to the Registrar-General for the purposes of the Marriage Registration Ordinance (Chapter 112). Registration of foreign judgments for the dissolution of marriages, &c. with the Registrar-General

11. (1) The registering court shall, at any time after registration of a foreign judgment, upon application in that behalf duly made by the judgment-debtor or any party whose rights, interests, benefits, title, status or entitlements have been adversely affected, or on its own motion, set aside the registration of the judgment, if the registering court is satisfied that – Setting aside of a registered judgment

- (a) the judgment was registered in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) of section 5;
- (b) notice or sufficient notice has not been given to the judgment-debtor in accordance with the law of the country of the original court to enable him to defend the proceedings;
- (c) the registered judgment was obtained by fraud;
- (d) the person by whom the application for recognition, registration and enforcement of the judgment was made, has not derived any right, interest, benefit, title, status or entitlement under the judgment of the original court; or

10 *Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and
 Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
 Act, No. 49 of 2024*

- (e) the judgment has been reversed or set aside in appeal by the original court or a higher court of the country of the original court in terms of the law of the country of the original court.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provisions of this Act, the registering court may, if it considers appropriate, allow the parties to lead evidence in respect of an application to set aside the registration of a judgment under this Act.

(3) The provisions of section 389 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of an application to set aside the registration of a judgment under this Act.

(4) The setting aside of the registration of a judgment under this section shall not prevent a fresh application for registration of a judgment being filed in compliance with the provisions of this Act.

Appeals

12. (1) No appeal shall lie against any order made by the registering court under the provisions of this Act in respect of an application made for the recognition, registration and enforcement of a foreign judgment, other than a judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage.

(2) Any party who is dissatisfied with any recognition awarded or any order made by the registering court under the provisions of this Act in respect of an application made for the recognition, registration and enforcement of a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage, may appeal to the relevant High Court established by Article 154P of the Constitution, with leave first had and obtained from the relevant High Court.

Reciprocal Recognition, Registration and 11
Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
Act, No. 49 of 2024

13. Where both parties to a foreign judgment for the dissolution or annulment of a marriage or separation of the parties to a marriage have made separate applications for the recognition and registration of the same judgment, the registering court shall consolidate both such applications and make an order in the same proceedings.

Making separate applications in respect of recognition and registration of a foreign judgment for the dissolution of a marriage, &c

PART III

GENERAL PROVISIONS

14. From and after the date on which an Order under subsection (1) of section 2 is published in the Gazette, any proceedings for the recognition, registration and enforcement of a judgment of a court of such foreign country shall not be entertained by any court in Sri Lanka, except in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Foreign judgments which may be registered, not to be enforceable otherwise
