Act, No. 50 of 2024

[Certified on 13th of September, 2024]

L. D.- O 24/2023

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
ACT, No. 15 OF 1979

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows: -

- 1. This Act may be cited as the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, No. 50 of 2024. Short title
- 2. Section 183 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) is hereby amended by the repeal of the marginal note to that section and the substitution therefor of the following: - Amendment of section 183 of Act, No. 15 of 1979

“Plea of guilty and sentencing without written plea agreement”.
- 3. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 183 of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 183A of the principal enactment: - Insertion of new section 183A in the principal enactment

“Plea of guilty and sentencing with written plea agreement 183A. (1) A plea agreement may be entered into between the prosecutor and an accused who is charged in the Magistrate’s Court at any time before the sentence is passed, subject to the procedure specified in this section.

(2) Where the parties to a case intend to negotiate a plea agreement under this section, the court shall be informed of the same:

2 Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment)
Act, No. 50 of 2024

Provided that, the court shall not participate in the negotiations for such plea agreement.

(3) The prosecutor, the Attorney-at-Law for the accused, or the accused, may initiate the offer to enter into a plea agreement:

Provided that, the prosecutor shall maintain the sole discretion on whether or not to enter into a plea agreement with the accused.

(4) If the accused is charged with an offence under the Schedule to the Prevention of Crimes Ordinance (Chapter 22), the Magistrate shall cause the accused to be fingerprinted and call for a fingerprint report.

(5) Negotiations for a plea agreement shall be conducted between the prosecutor and the Attorney-at-Law representing the accused:

Provided that, where an accused who intends to enter into a plea agreement is not represented by an Attorney-at-Law, the court shall, assign an Attorney-at-Law to negotiate on behalf of the accused if the accused on being asked by the court, so requests.

(6) As part of the plea negotiation process, the prosecutor may meet with the Attorney-at-Law for the accused, to ascertain to the satisfaction of the prosecution, a complete description of the criminal conduct engaged in by the accused, and the details of criminal conduct engaged in by others, which the accused may provide as cooperation during the negotiation.

(7) During the plea negotiations, the prosecutor shall-

- (a) consider the nature and the circumstances relating to the case, the impact of the commission of the offence on the victim, the personal circumstances of the accused, the interests of the public, and the value of any information provided by the accused including any cooperation provided by the accused as part of the negotiation;
- (b) not use the information obtained from an accused during the course of plea negotiations against him during the prosecution of the case if the plea negotiations are ultimately unsuccessful; and
- (c) afford-
 - (i) the victim;
 - (ii) the Attorney-at-Law of the victim; or
 - (iii) the National Authority for the Protection of Victims of Crimes and Witnesses established under the Assistance to and Protection of Victims of Crime and Witnesses Act, No. 10 of 2023,

4 Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment)
Act, No. 50 of 2024

a reasonable opportunity to make a written representation to the prosecution regarding the impact of the crime, unless the circumstances prevent such representation.

(8) (a) A prosecutor and the accused or the Attorney-at-Law for the accused, may each make a specific recommendation to the court as to the sentence to be imposed and include the recommendation in writing in the final plea agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding the recommendation of the parties, the court shall retain the sole discretion in sentencing and discretion to indicate the sentence that may be imposed.

(c) Where the prosecutor recommends to the court the imposition of a sentence that is more severe than the recommendation included in the plea agreement, the accused may withdraw the plea of guilty and set aside the plea agreement.

(d) Where the accused recommends to the court the imposition of a sentence that is less severe than the recommendation in the plea agreement, the accused shall not be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty on that ground alone.

(e) Where the accused recommends to the court the imposition of a sentence that is less severe than the recommendation in the plea agreement, the prosecutor may recommend to the court any other appropriate sentence.

(9) (a) The prosecutor shall present the court with the factual basis of the plea set out in the plea agreement between the prosecutor and the accused by presenting the court with the final plea agreement at the hearing, where the accused pleads guilty in accordance with the terms of the plea agreement. The factual basis will be included in writing as part of the completed plea agreement.

(b) The plea agreement submitted to the court shall be in the format specified in Form 23 in the Second Schedule.

(c) Where the accused is a child, the plea agreement shall be signed by the child's parent or guardian.

(d) A plea agreement shall be finalized when the accused signs the agreement.

(10) Upon being satisfied that the accused signed the plea agreement knowingly and voluntarily, the court may accept the plea agreement.

(11) Where the court accepts a plea agreement, the agreement shall become binding upon the parties and the court shall proceed to convict the accused accordingly.

(12) An appeal shall not lie from a conviction imposed after the court has accepted the plea agreement and convicted the accused under subsection (11).

6 Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment)
Act, No. 50 of 2024

(13) An appeal shall not lie from a sentence imposed by the court which falls within the range of punishment recommended by the parties in the plea agreement.

(14) Where the court rejects a plea agreement—

- (a) the reasons for such rejection shall be recorded and the parties shall be informed thereof; and
- (b) the plea agreement shall become null and void and the parties shall not be bound by such agreement.

(15) Upon rejection, or withdrawal, of a plea agreement, fresh plea negotiations in a trial relating to the same facts may be considered with prior permission of the court.

(16) Where the court has rejected a plea agreement under this section, no party shall appeal against, or apply for a review of, the order of the court rejecting the agreement.

(17) For the purposes of this section –

“child” means, a person under eighteen years of age;
