(1) The Monetary Board

(a) may appoint such officers and servants as may be required by the Board for exercising its powers, performing its duties and discharging its functions under this Act, fix the salaries and wages of such officers and servants and determine their conditions of service;

(b) shall receive all sums paid under this Act as contributions, surcharges and fees, and the income from the investment of moneys of the Fund and shall credit such sums and income to the Fund;

(bb) the Board shall determine with the concurrence of the Minister, the amount of surcharge to be distributed, among the members affected by the failure of their employers to pay the contributions due from him to the Fund, on the day such contribution is due, out of the money received by way of surcharge under the provisions of section 16

(c) shall have custody of the moneys of the Fund;

(d) shall pay to the persons certified by the Commissioner the benefits to which those persons are entitled under this Act;

(e) may invest such of the moneys of the Fund as are not immediately required for the purposes of this Act in such securities as the Board may consider fit and may sell such securities;

(ee) may invest such amount of moneys of the Fund according to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, to purchase a land for the construction of a Secretariat on behalf of the Fund or to construct such Secretariat on any land belonging to or held by the Fund, for the use of the Fund;

(f) shall maintain a general account in respect of the Fund, and a separate account (in this Act referred to as an individual account) in respect of each member of the Fund;

(ff) shall maintain a Suspense Account, into which shall be credited the contributions received under this Act in respect of which, the employers have failed to furnish relevant returns in terms of the Act or any regulations made thereunder, or have furnished deficient or incorrect returns and thus cannot be credited to individual accounts, and all the moneys held on the date on which this paragraph comes into force, in an account maintained by the Fund in respect of such contributions, shall be transferred by the Monetary Board to the Suspense Account created by this paragraph.

As and when an employer, who has failed to furnish relevant returns as referred to above, furnishes correct returns in respect of his employee, the Monetary Board shall transfer the moneys lying in the Suspense Account to the individual account of the member.

Where any moneys are transferred from the Suspense Account to an individual account as provided for in this paragraph interest shall be paid on that sum, for the period from the date of receipt of such moneys to the date of transfer of such moneys to the individuals account and the rate of interest shall be the rate determined in terms of section 14(1) of the Act, and applicable for the year in respect of which the interest is paid;

(g) shall cause the books of accounts relating to the Fund to be balanced as on the thirty-first day of December in each year;

(h) shall cause to be prepared in respect of the Fund for each year a statement of receipts and payments, a statement of income and expenditure, a statement of assets and liabilities, and a statement of investments showing the face value, purchase price, and market value of each of the investments;

(i) shall transmit to the Minister a copy of each of the statements prepared under the preceding paragraph (h) for each year within three months after the thirty-first day of December of that year;

(j) shall notify

(i) the employer of each member of the Fund who is employed in a covered employment, and

(ii) each member of the Fund who has ceased to be employed in a covered employment, within nine months after the thirty-first day of December in each year, of the amount lying to the credit of the individual account of such member on that day;

(k) shall deduct from the income from the investment of moneys of the Fund, the expenses incurred by the Board and the Commissioner in carrying out their respective functions under this Act;

(kk) may establish such reserves out of the income of the Fund as the Monetary Board may determine, to meet any contingencies or any depreciation in the market value of the assets of the Fund; and (1) shall have such other powers and duties in connection with the Fund as may be conferred or imposed on such Board, by Order published in the Gazette, by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance.

(kkk) shall deduct any outstanding monies due on a housing Loan under section 22, from the individual account of a member, upon a directive from the Commissioner to that effect, and transfer the amount so deducted to the relevant lending institution.

(2) Every officer or servant appointed under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall be deemed to be employed for the performance of duties under the Monetary Law Act, for the purpose of the application of the provisions of the said Act relating to officers and servants.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (k) of subsection (I), 'expenses' shall include

(i) any loss of moneys on account of theft, misappropriation or over-payment;

(ii) any loss of articles of furniture, office equipment or stationery used in or purchased for the administration of the Fund the cost of which cannot be recovered from the persons responsible for such loss; and

(iii) the value of any article of furniture, office equipment or stationery written off on grounds of unserviceability.

Employer to communicate to member the information notified by the Monetary Board.

5A.

Where an employer is notified by the Monetary Board under section 5 (1) (j), of the amount lying to the credit of the individual account of a member of the Fund, such employer shall forthwith communicate to such member the information so notified.

Auditor-General to audit the accounts of the Funds, and

(1) The accounts of the Fund in respect of each year shall be audited by the Auditor-General and the cost of the audit shall be paid to him out of the Fund. All payments made to him under this subsection shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund.

(2) The Auditor-General or any officer of his department authorized by him to audit the accounts of the Fund shall have access to all such books and documents as the Auditor-General or such officer may consider necessary for the purposes of the audit of such accounts, and shall be furnished by the Monetary Board and the Commissioner with such information within their knowledge or ascertainable by them as may be required for such purposes.

(3) The Auditor-General shall examine the accounts of the Fund and submit to the Minister annually a report

(a) stating whether he has or has not obtained all the information required by him,

(b) stating whether the accounts referred to in the report are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the affairs of the Fund, and

(c) drawing attention to any item in such accounts which in his opinion may be of interest to Parliament in any examination of such accounts. Such report shall not disclose the name of any member of the Fund.

(4) The Minister shall lay before Parliament a copy of the Auditor-General's report submitted to the Minister under subsection (3) of this section and copies of the statements transmitted to the Minister by the Monetary Board under paragraph (i) of subsection (1) of section 5.

Repayments to Government.
[4, 8 of 1971]

7. Every sum paid out of the Consolidated Fund

(1) to the Commissioner prior to the date of enactment of this Act, for defraying the expenditure incurred in making preliminary arrangements for the establishment of the Fund.

Expenses incurred
in the administration of the Act.
[3, 1 of 1985]

7A.

The expenses incurred by the Commissioner and the Monetary Board in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be the Act' charged on the income from the investment of moneys of the Fund.

PART II

COVERED EMPLOYMENTS, EMPLOYEES TO WHOM THIS ACT APPLIES, AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Covered

8. (1) Any employment, including any employment in the service of employments and employees to whom this Act applies.

a corporation whose capital or a part of whose capital is provided by the Government, may by regulation be declared to be a covered employment.

(2) Regulations may be made

(a) to treat as a covered employment any employment outside Sri Lanka which is for the purposes of a trade or business carried on in Sri Lanka and which would be a covered employment if it were in Sri Lanka; and

(b) to treat as not being a covered employment or to disregard

(i) employment under a person who employs less than a prescribed minimum number of employees;

(ii) employment of a person in the service or for the purposes of the trade or business, or as a partner, of that person's spouse.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, every person over a prescribed age who is employed by any other person in any covered employment shall be an employee to whom this Act applies. For the purposes of this subsection different ages may be prescribed for different covered employments.

(4) Any regulation declaring any employment to be a covered employment may provide that such persons only as earn less than a prescribed amount in that employment or as are of a prescribed class or description, and not other persons in that employment, shall be employees to whom this Act applies.

Immediate employer being himself in the employment of another person.

9. Where the immediate employer of any person is himself in the employment of some other person and the first-mentioned person is employed to do any work in the course of and for the purposes of the business of that other person, that other person shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the employer of the first-mentioned person jointly with the immediate employer.

Normal contributions.
[4, 1 of 1985]
[2, 26 of 1981]
[6, 8 of 1971]

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section and of section 27, an employee to whom this Act applies shall, in respect of each month during which he works in a covered employment, be liable to pay to the Fund a contribution of an amount equal to eight per centum of his total earnings from that employment during that month.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section and of section 27, the employer of every employee to whom this Act applies and who is liable to pay contributions to the Fund shall, in respect of each month during which such employee is in a covered employment under such employer, be liable to pay to the Fund on or before the last day of the succeeding month, a contribution of an amount equal to twelve per centum of such employee's total earnings from that employment during that month.

(3) The liability of an employee in a covered employment and his employer to pay contributions under this section shall commence on the day immediately after the date fixed in relation to such employment by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette. Different dates may be fixed under this subsection for different classes of employees in the same covered employment.

Right of employees 11.
and employers to elect to pay contributions calculated at higher percentages, and liability of employees and employers who make such election.

(1) An employee to whom this Act applies and his employer may elect, by notice sent to the Commissioner in the prescribed form and manner, to pay, after the date specified in the notice as the date on which the election shall take effect, contributions calculated at such percentages higher than those specified in section 10 as are specified in the notice.

(2) Where an employee and his employer make an election by notice under subsection (1) of this section, such election shall be irrevocable after the date on which the election takes effect, and they shall, after that date, be liable to pay as their contributions under this Act amounts calculated at the percentages specified in that notice.

Commissioner's 12.
direction to employer who has reduced the earnings of any employee for the purpose of reducing the amount of the employer's contributions under

(1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that the employer of any employee has, during the period of one year immediately before the appointed date or at any time on or after that date, reduced the earnings of such employee for the purpose of reducing the amount of such contributions, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, direct such employer to pay to the Fund in such instalments and before such dates as may be specified in that notice, in respect of the entire period during which such employee receives such reduced earnings, the difference between the sum he should have paid during that period as contributions had such contributions been calculated on the basis of the earnings of such employee before the reduction and the sum actually paid by him as contributions during that period.

this Act in respect of the employee.

(2) Where the Commissioner gives any employer a direction under subsection (1) of this section, such employer shall comply with that direction.

When fraction of a cent is to be ignored, or is to be reckoned as one cent, in computing the amount of a contribution.

13. Where the amount of a contribution payable under this Act involves the fraction of a cent, then

(a) if such fraction is less than one-half of a cent, such fraction shall not be taken into account; and

(b) if such fraction amounts to or exceeds one-half of a cent, such fraction shall be reckoned as one cent.

Interest on contributions, & c. [4, 16 of 1970]

14. (1) Interest at such rate, not less than two and the half per centum per annum, as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Monetary Board with the concurrence of the Minister and the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance shall be paid for each year, out of the income from the investment of the moneys of the Fund, on the amount standing to the credit of the individual account of each member of the Fund as at the thirty-first day of December in that year:

Provided that,

(a) for the period commencing on January 1 of the calendar year in which any sum is paid as a benefit under this Act to or in respect of a member of the Fund and ending on the date of payment of that sum, interest at such rate not less than two and a half per centum per annum shall be paid on the amount to the credit of the individual account of that member at the end of the month immediately preceding the date of termination of that period; and

(b) where any sum is credited under section 27 by the Monetary Board to the individual account of a member of the Fund on any date after the thirtieth day of June in any year, no such interest shall be paid on that sum for the period commencing on that date and ending on the thirty-first day of December of that year.

(2) Where the income from the investment of the moneys of the Fund is inadequate to pay any part of the interest payable on contributions paid to the Fund under this Act, the amount of the deficit shall be met out of moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose.

(3) Any sum provided by Parliament under subsection (2) of this section shall constitute a loan from the Government to the Monetary Board and shall be repaid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance.

Payment of contributions due from employees.

- 15. The employer of an employee to whom this Act applies shall deduct and pay to the Fund the contribution for each month of such employee under this Act before the last day of the succeeding month from the earnings of such employee; and a contribution paid under this section to the Fund by such employer on behalf of such employee shall be deemed to have been paid to the Fund by such employee.

Imposition of surcharge on employers on failure to pay contributions on due date.

[3, 26 of 1981]

- 16. Where contributions payable under this Act in respect of any month have not been made to the Fund before the last day of the succeeding month and the employer is unable to explain to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the failure to pay such contributions was due to circumstances beyond his control, he shall be liable to pay to the Fund, in addition to the amount of the contributions due, a surcharge on such amount calculated in the following manner:

- (a) where the contributions are in arrear for a period not exceeding ten days, a surcharge of five per centum of the amount of the contributions due;
- (b) where the contributions are in arrear for a period exceeding ten days but not exceeding one month, a surcharge of fifteen per centum of the amount of the contributions due;
- (c) where the contributions are in arrear for a period exceeding one month but not exceeding three months, a surcharge of twenty per centum of the amount of the contributions due;
- (d) where the contributions are in arrear for a period exceeding three months but not exceeding six months, a surcharge of thirty per centum of the amount of the contributions due;
- (e) where the contributions are in arrear for a period exceeding six months but not exceeding twelve months, a surcharge of forty per centum of the amount of the contributions due;

(f) where the contributions are in arrear for a period exceeding twelve months, a surcharge of fifty per centum of the amount of the contributions due.

Recovery of contributions.

17. (1) Any moneys due to the Fund shall be recoverable, as a debt due to the State, by an action in which proceedings may be taken by way of summary procedure. The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to actions of which the procedure is summary shall apply to an action under this section, and, for the purposes only of the application of such provisions to such action, section 8 of that Code shall have effect as if, for the words ' by this Ordinance' occurring in that section, there were substituted the words ' by this Ordinance or by any other written law'.
- (2) Proceedings for the recovery of any moneys due to the Fund may be instituted by the Commissioner or any officer authorized in that behalf by him, and the Commissioner or such officer may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, conduct such proceedings.
- (3) The provisions of the Prescription Ordinance shall not apply to the recovery of any sums payable as contributions or surcharges under this Act.

The sums to be credited to the individual account of members.

18. The contributions of a member of the Fund and of his employer in respect of him and the interest on such contributions shall be credited by the Monetary Board to the individual account of such member.

Employer prohibited from reducing earning of his employees, and &c.

19. No employer shall, by reason of his Employer liability to pay in respect of any employee any contribution or surcharge under this Act, reduce the earnings of that employee or alter to his detriment any benefits which he is entitled to under the provisions of any other written law or under his contract of employment with that employer.

Employer prohibited from deducting from earnings of employee payments due from employer under

20. The employer of any employee shall not deduct from the earnings of that employee any sum which that employer is liable to pay as a contribution or surcharge under this Act, and any contract entered into by that employer with that employee whereby any part of the liability of that employer under this Act is transferred to that employee shall be null and void.

this Act in respect of employee.

Amount due under this Act from an employer to be the first charge on his assets. 21. Any sum due under this Act from an employer on the day immediately following the end of the period within which that sum is required by this Act to be paid by him shall be the first charge on his assets notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law,

Money to the credit of individual accounts to be inalienable. 22. Every assignment of, or charge on, any sum to the credit of the individual account of a member of the Fund and every agreement to assign or charge any such sum shall be void, and, where that member is adjudged insolvent by a competent court, any such sum shall not pass to any assignee acting on behalf of that member's creditors notwithstanding the provisions of the Insolvency Ordinance.

Provided however, a member of the Fund may, assign or charge the contributions lying to the credit of his individual account in the Fund, with the State Mortgage and Investment Bank established under the State Mortgage and Investment Bank Act, No. 13 of 1975, or the National Housing and Development Authority established under the National Housing Development Authority Act, No. 17 of 1979 or the Housing Development Finance Corporation of Sri Lanka limited established under the National Housing Act (Chapter 401). or the Peoples' Bank established under the Peoples'. Bank Act, No. 29 of 1961, or the Bank of Ceylon established under the Bank of Ceylon Ordinance (Chapter 397) or the National Savings Bank established under the National Savings Bank Act, No. 30 of 1971, or Multipurpose Corporative Societies established under the Corporative Societies Ordinance (Chapter 124), against a loan given for housing purposes by any one of the said lending institutions.

In any case where more than one member of a family are members of the Fund, all such members of the family as are members of the Fund may assign or charge the aggregate of the contributions lying to the credit of their individual accounts against a housing loan taken as aforesaid.

Where the repayment of the instalment of a loan is in default, the Commissioner shall, after being so intimated by the relevant lending institution, settle the instalment in default together with interest accrued on such instalment to such lending institution, out of the moneys lying in the individual account or accounts of such employee or employees, notwithstanding the provisions of section 23 or 24 of the Act.

The intimation by a relevant lending institution to the Commissioner, with respect to defaults in payment by an employee of instalments of a loan shall be made at the end of each calendar year.

Where there are any sums outstanding on account of a housing loan taken as aforesaid at the time of the payment of a benefit under section 23 or 24, as the case may be, the Commissioner may direct the Monetary Board, to deduct such outstanding sums out of the moneys lying to the credit, of such member or members, in his or their individual accounts as the case may be, and transfer the moneys so deducted, immediately after such deduction, to the respective lending institutions.

For the purpose of section 22, 'family' means a member of the Fund, his or her spouse, and his or her children.

PART III BENEFIT

Time at which benefits will be paid of.

[6, 1 of 1985]

27. (1) Where a provident fund or a contributory pension scheme has been established before the appointed date for the benefit of any employees in a covered employment, the administrators of such fund or scheme shall, within three months after the declaration of that employment as a covered employment by regulation made under this Act, furnish the Commissioner with the prescribed particulars relating to such fund or scheme, and, if the Commissioner, after examining such particulars and making such investigations as he may deem necessary, is of the opinion that such fund or scheme satisfies the prescribed requirements and that it is expedient that such fund or scheme should be declared to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme, he shall declare such fund or scheme to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme; and, if he so declares, no contributions shall, with effect from the date fixed in relation to such fund or scheme, be payable to the Fund by such employees and the employer of such employees.

(2) The employer in a covered employment who proposes to establish, after the appointed date, a provident fund for the employees in such employment shall furnish the Commissioner with the prescribed particulars relating to the proposed provident fund, and, if after examining such particulars and making such investigations as he may deem necessary, the Commissioner is of opinion that the proposed provident fund satisfies the prescribed requirements and that it is expedient that such fund should be declared to be an approved provident fund, the Commissioner shall declare the proposed provident fund to be an approved provident fund; and, if he so declares and the provident fund is established, contributions to the Employees' Provident Fund shall, with effect from the date fixed in relation to such approved provident fund by the Commissioner, cease to be payable by such employees and such employer.

(2A) Where contributions payable under this Act by the employers or administrators of any approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme in respect of any month have not been paid to such fund or scheme on or before the last day of the succeeding month and the employer or administrator is unable to explain to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the failure to pay such contribution was due to circumstances beyond his control, he shall be liable to pay to such fund or scheme in addition to the amount of the contributions due, a surcharge on such amount calculated in the following manner:

(a) Where the contributions are in arrears for a period not exceeding ten days, a surcharge of five per centum of the amount of the contributions due;

(b) where the contributions are in arrears for a period exceeding ten days but not exceeding one month a surcharge of fifteen per centum of the amount of the contributions due;

(c) where the contributions are in arrears for a period exceeding one month but not exceeding three months, a surcharge of twenty per centum of the amount of the contributions due;

(d) where the contributions are in arrears for a period exceeding three months but not exceeding six months, a surcharge of thirty per centum of the amount of the contributions due;

(e) where the contributions are in arrears for a period exceeding six months but not exceeding twelve months, a surcharge of forty per centum of the amount of the contributions due; and

(f) where the contributions are in arrears for a period exceeding twelve months, a surcharge of fifty per centum of the contributions due.

(2B) The moneys received by way of surcharges and paid into the fund of any approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme shall be deemed to form part of the income of such fund or scheme as the case may be and shall accordingly be distributed among the members of the respective fund or scheme.

(3) No rules or regulations governing an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme shall be altered except with the written sanction of the Commissioner, and, where there is a contravention of the provisions of this subsection, the administrators of such fund or scheme shall be deemed to have committed such contravention.

(4) Every employer and employee who are liable to contribute to an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme under the rules or regulations in force for that fund or scheme shall comply with such of those rules or regulations as are applicable to them.

(5) Where, either by reason of the fact that an employee liable to pay contributions under this Act to the Employees' Provident Fund takes up an employment in respect of which an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme exists or in the circumstances specified in subsection (2) of this section, contributions in respect of an employee cease to be payable to the Employees' Provident Fund, the amount standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund shall be retained in that account to be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part III of this Act.

(6) Where an approved provident fund is wound up, the administrators or liquidators of that approved provident fund shall transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid to that approved provident fund.

(7) Where an employee who is a contributor to an approved provident fund leaves the employment by virtue of which he has been such contributor, takes up a covered employment thereafter in respect of which he is not liable to contribute to any other approved provident fund and notifies to the Commissioner in writing the assumption of duties in such covered employment, the Commissioner shall in writing direct the administrators of the first-mentioned approved provident fund to transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid in respect of that employee to the first-mentioned approved provident fund.

(8) Where the administrators of a provident fund or contributory pension scheme referred to in subsection (1) of this section fail to comply with the provisions of that subsection or where such fund or scheme is not declared by the Commissioner to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme, such administrators shall transfer to the Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid in respect of employees to the first-mentioned provident fund or pension scheme.

(9) The Monetary Board-

(a) shall, where a sum from an approved provident fund is transferred under subsection (6) of this section to the Employees' Provident Fund, open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for each of the employees who were contributors to that approved provident fund at the time of such transfer, and shall credit to the individual account of each such employee in the Employees' Provident Fund such part of the sum transferred to the Employees' Provident Fund as was to the credit of his account in that approved provident fund, and

(b) shall open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for every employee in respect of whom any sum is transferred under subsection (7) or subsection (8) of this section to the Employees' Provident Fund and shall credit that sum to that individual account.

(10) Where the Commissioner is dissatisfied with the management of any approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme, he may revoke the declaration made under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section in respect of that fund or scheme, and, if such declaration is revoked, he shall in writing

(a) communicate the revocation to the administrators of that fund or scheme, and

(b) direct those administrators to transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid to that fund or scheme, and those administrators shall comply with the Commissioner's direction.

(11) The Monetary Board shall, where the administrators of an approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme have complied with a direction issued by the Commissioner under subsection (10) of this section, open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for each employee who was a contributor to that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme when such administrators complied with such direction, and shall credit to that individual account such part of the sum transferred from that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme to the Employees' Provident Fund in compliance with the Commissioner's direction as was to the credit of that employee's account in that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme.

(12) Where the Commissioner has been notified of the existence of a dispute, between an employer or administrator as the case may be, and any member of an approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme he shall issue such directions as he may deem appropriate in the circumstances for the settlement of such dispute. Any directions issued by the Commissioner under this subsection shall be binding on the parties to the dispute.

PART V

DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS

Commissioner or an officer authorized by the Commissioner to determine claims.

28. All claims to benefits shall be determined by the Commissioner or by any officer authorized in that behalf by him and the determination of the Commissioner or such officer shall, subject to any decision on an appeal made against such determination in accordance with the provisions of this Act, be final:

Provided that any determination made by any officer under this section may within the prescribed period be reviewed by the Commissioner on his own motion; and in such case the determination of the Commissioner shall be deemed, for the purposes of section 29, to be the determination in that case.

- Appeals.
29. (1) Any person aggrieved by any determination made under section 28 may appeal from such determination to a Tribunal of Appeal (hereafter in this Act referred to as the Tribunal) constituted in the prescribed manner, and the decision of the Tribunal on such appeal shall, subject to any Order which the Court of Appeal may make on appeal made from such decision in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, be final.
- (2) Where the Commissioner or any party to an appeal made to the Tribunal is dissatisfied with the decision of the Tribunal on such appeal, the Commissioner or that party may, by written petition in which every other party to the appeal is mentioned as a respondent, appeal to the Court of Appeal from that decision on a question of law. The petition of appeal shall state the question of law to be argued, shall bear a certificate by an attorney-at-law that such question is fit for adjudication by the Court of Appeal, shall be presented to the Tribunal by the appellant within twenty-one days after the date of the Tribunal's decision from which the appeal is preferred, and shall be accompanied by a sufficient number of copies for service on each of the persons mentioned as respondents. Every such petition of appeal shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) Where a petition of appeal is presented to the Tribunal in the manner and within the time specified in subsection (2) of this section, it shall be the duty of the Tribunal
- (a) to cause the petition to be transmitted to the Court of Appeal together with the record of the proceedings in which the decision of the Tribunal against which the petition is preferred was made, and
 - (b) to cause notice of the appeal and a copy of the petition of appeal to be served on each of the respondents named in the petition of appeal.
- (4) Every appeal to the Court of Appeal under this section may be heard and determined by any two Judges of that Court.
- (5) Upon a decision being given by the Court of Appeal in any appeal under this section, the Registrar of that Court shall remit the case to the Tribunal together with the decision of that Court, and it shall be the duty of the Tribunal, if the decision of that Court so requires, to rescind or vary, in such manner as is required by the decision of that Court, the decision of the Tribunal from which the appeal was preferred and, where necessary for the purpose of giving effect to the decision of that Court, to make a fresh decision.

(6) In any appeal made to the Court of Appeal under this section that Court may make such order in regard to costs as to that Court may seem fit,

(7) Any costs ordered by the Court of Appeal under subsection (6) of this section to be paid by any person may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other written law, be recovered, on application made in that behalf to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction in the place where that person is resident, in like manner as a fine imposed by that Magistrate's Court, notwithstanding that such costs may exceed the amount of the maximum fine which that Magistrate's Court may in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction impose.

(8) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, the Tribunal may regulate its own procedure.

Remuneration of member of the Tribunal. 30. The members of the Tribunal may be paid such remuneration as the Minister may determine with the concurrence of the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance.

PART VI GENERAL

Power of Commissioner to call for returns, and &c. 31. (1) The Commissioner may, for the purposes of this Act, direct in writing any person to furnish to him before a date specified in the direction

- (a) a return containing such particulars as he may require; and
- (b) such explanation in writing as he may require in respect of any particulars specified in any return so furnished, and such person shall comply with such direction. A direction under the preceding provisions of this subsection may be given by notice published in the Gazette and in two or more newspapers circulating in Sri Lanka.

(2) Any person furnishing any document under subsection (1) of this section may transmit with such document a request in writing that the contents of such document should be treated as confidential and, where such request is made, the contents of such document shall not be disclosed without the consent previously obtained of such person.

(3) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed to require or permit any person to disclose any explanation or to produce any document in any case where such disclosure or production by that person is prohibited by or under the provisions of any written law other than this Act.

Imposition of a surcharge on employers who fail to furnish returns.
[5, 2 of 2012]
[6, 42 of 1988]

31A. Where any employer, who is required in terms of this Act or any regulation made thereunder, to furnish a return together with any contribution, has failed to furnish such return, within the specified period or has furnished incorrect or deficient return and is unable to explain to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the reason for the failure to furnish such return for that period; he shall be liable to pay to the Fund a surcharge at the rate of two per centum of the amount of such contribution for every completed month or a part thereof from the last date on or before which the return was due to the date of receipt by the Central Bank of Sri Lanka of a duly completed return.

Duty to furnish returns.
[6, 2 of 2012]

31B. (1) It shall be the duty of every employer having in his employment a minimum of fifty employees to furnish a monthly return containing such particulars as may be prescribed, to the Commissioner-General of Labour with a copy to the Central Bank not later than the end of the succeeding month.

(2) Every monthly return referred to in subsection (1) shall with effect from July 1, 2012 be submitted by electronic means.

Powers of Commissioner and other officers to inspect premises, and &c.

32. Subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed, the Commissioner or any officer authorized in that behalf by him in writing, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, may

- (a) enter and inspect at all reasonable hours by day or night any premises or place for examining any register or record relating to the earnings of any employee,
- (b) take copies of any such register or record or part thereof,
- (c) examine any person whom he has reasonable cause to believe is an employer or an employee, and

(d) examine any records or other documents relating to any provident fund or pension scheme.

Employers to keep records-1971. 33. Every employer of employees in a covered employment shall maintain such records as may be determined by the Commissioner and notified in the Gazette.

Offences.
[7, 1 of 1985]

34. Any person who

- (a) contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation made thereunder;
- (b) furnishes, for the purposes of this Act, any information which is, or any document the contents of which are, or any part of the contents of which is, to his knowledge unique or incorrect;
- (c) wilfully delays or obstructs the Commissioner or any other officer in the exercise of his powers under section 32, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act; or
- (d) contravenes any direction made by the Commissioner in the exercise of his powers under section 27.

Liability of manager, agent &c of employer for offences.

35. Where an act or omission which constitutes an offence for which an employer is liable under this Act has in fact been committed or made by some manager, agent, servant or other person, the manager, agent, servant or other person shall be liable to be proceeded against for the offence in the same manner as if he were the employer, and either together with the employer, or before or after the conviction of the employer, and shall be liable to the like punishment as if he were the employer.

Where the employer proves that some other person is guilty of an offence.

36.(1) Where any employer is charged with an offence under this Act, he shall, upon complaint duly made by him in accordance with the provisions of section 136 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, and on giving to the prosecution not less than three days' notice of his intention, be entitled, subject to the provisions of Chapter XIV of that Act, to have any other person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the court, and if, after commission of the offence by such other person has been proved, the employer proves to the satisfaction of the court that he has used due diligence to enforce the provisions of this Act and such other person has committed the offence without his knowledge, consent or connivance, then such other person shall be convicted of the offence and the employer shall be exempt from any punishment in respect of the offence.

(2) Where in any case referred to in subsection (1) of this section a complaint is made by an employer against any other person,

(a) the prosecution against such other person shall be conducted by or on behalf of the employer,

(b) any witness called by the prosecution in the proceedings against such other person may be cross-examined by any officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner, and

(c) pending the determination of the proceedings against such other person, the proceedings in the prosecution of the employer shall be adjourned.

Punishment for offences.

[7, 2 of 2012]

[11, 8 of 1971]

37. Every person who is guilty of an offence under this Act shall be liable, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and shall in addition be liable to a fine not exceeding seventy five rupees for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction.

Recovery of arrears of payments due in certain cases.

[8, 1 of 1985]

[12, 8 of 1971]

38. (1) Where an employer makes default in the payment of any sum which he is liable to pay under this Act and the Commissioner is of opinion that recovery under section 17 of the Act is impracticable or inexpedient, he may issue a certificate to the District Court having jurisdiction in any district in which the member or members of the fund in respect of whom default is made, is or was employed by such defaulting employer, containing particulars of the sum due and the name and place of residence of such employer, and the court shall thereupon direct a writ of execution to issue to the Fiscal authorizing and requiring him to seize and sell all the property, movable and immovable, of the defaulting employer, or such part thereof as he may deem necessary for the recovery of the amount so due, and the provisions of sections 226 to 297 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such seizure and sale.

(2) Where an employer makes default in the payment of any sum which he is liable to pay under this Act and the Commissioner is of opinion that it is impracticable or inexpedient to recover that sum under section 17 or under subsection (1) of this section or where the full amount due has not been recovered by seizure and sale, then, he may issue a certificate containing particulars of the sum so due and the name and place of residence of the defaulting employer, to the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the division in which the place of work of the member or members of the fund in respect of whom default is made, is situate. The Magistrate shall, thereupon, summon such employer before him to show cause why further proceedings for the recovery of the sum due under this Act should not be taken against him and in default of sufficient cause being shown, such sum shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such employer for an offence punishable with imprisonment and the provisions of section 291 (except paragraphs (a), (d) and (i) of subsection (1) thereof) of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, relating to the default of payment of a fine imposed for such an offence shall thereupon apply and the Magistrate may make any direction which, by the provisions of that subsection, he could have made at the time of imposing such sentence.

(3) The correctness of any statement in a certificate issued by the Commissioner for the purposes of this section shall not be called in question or examined by the court in any proceedings under this section, and accordingly nothing in this section shall authorize the court to consider or decide the correctness of any statement in such certificate, and the Commissioner's certificate shall be sufficient evidence that the amount due under this Act from the defaulting employer has been duly calculated and that such amount is in default.

(4) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in section 17 of this Act. (*With retrospective effect to 1st June, 1958. See section 2 of Act No. 24 of 1971.)

Burden of proof. [13, 8 of 1971] 39. In any proceedings against any employer under section 17 of this Act for failure to pay any sum due from him under this Act, the burden of proving that the sum was paid shall lie on the employer.

Offences by bodies of persons. 40. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons, then

(a) if that body of persons is a body corporate, every director and officer of that body corporate,

(b) if that body of persons is a firm, every partner of that firm, and

(c) if that body of persons is a trade union, every officer of that trade union, shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence:

Provided that a director or an officer of such body corporate, or a partner of such firm or an officer of such trade union, shall not be deemed to be guilty of such offence if he proves that such offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

No prosecution without the sanction of the Commissioner.

41. No prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted except by or with the written sanction of the Commissioner.

Proof of regulations and orders, & c .

42. (1) An extract from the Gazette containing any regulation or order made under this Act, or a copy of such regulation or order purporting to have been certified by the Commissioner to be a true copy, may be produced in court in proof of such regulation or order.

(2) In any legal proceedings

(a) a copy of an entry in any book of accounts maintained by the Monetary Board for the purposes of this Act, purporting to have been certified by an accountant of the Central Bank of Ceylon to be a true copy, or

(b) a copy of an entry in any book or record maintained by the Commissioner for the purposes of this Act, purporting to have been certified by him to be a true copy, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that such entry had been made and of the contents thereof.

Exemption from income tax.
[56, 18 of 1965]

43. (1) The income from the investment of any moneys of the Fund shall be exempt from income tax chargeable under any written law relating to the imposition of income tax.

(2) The sum paid as a benefit in respect of a member of the Fund under this Act shall be exempt from income tax chargeable under any written law relating to the imposition of income tax, if such member during the five years immediately preceding his retirement, departure from Sri Lanka or death, as the case may be, was not liable to pay income tax.

(3) The Fund shall be deemed to be a provident fund approved by the Commissioner or the Commissioner-General, as the case may be, for the purposes of the Income Tax Ordinance or the Inland Revenue Act, No. 4 of 1963, or the Inland Revenue Act (No. 28 of 1979).

In this subsection 'Commissioner' and 'Commissioner-General' shall have the same meaning as in the Income Tax Ordinance or the Inland Revenue Act, No. 4 of 1963, or the Inland Revenue Act. (No. 28 of 1979) respectively.

Exemption from stamp duty. 44. Stamp duty shall not be chargeable upon such documents used in connection with the purposes of this Act as may be prescribed.

Protection for action taken under this Act. 45. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

Regulations.
[8, 2 of 2012]
[14, 8 of 1971]

46.(1) The Minister may make regulations

- (a) in respect of all matters which are stated or required by this Act to be prescribed;
- (b) in respect of all matters for which regulations are required or authorized to be made by this Act;
- (c) in respect of all matters connected with or incidental to the collection of contributions and other payments under this Act;
- (d) in respect of the refund of any sums paid in error to the Fund;
- (e) in respect of the evidence required in support of a declaration by a member of the Fund that he is leaving Sri Lanka and does not intend to return thereto;
- (f) for enabling a person to be appointed to exercise, on behalf of a claimant to a benefit who is a child or who may be unable for the time being to act, any right which the claimant may be entitled to exercise under this Act, and for authorizing a person so appointed to receive and deal with a benefit to which a claimant is entitled;
- (g) in respect of the nomination by a member of the Fund of a person or persons to whom the amount standing to the credit of that member's individual account in the Fund may be paid in the event of that member's death and the manner of revocation of such nomination;

(h) in respect of the manner in which and the time within which appeals to the Tribunal constituted under this Act shall be made;

(i) in respect of the fees to be paid for appeals to such Tribunal;

(j) in respect of the procedure to be followed and the powers exercisable by such Tribunal;

(k) in respect of the circumstances in which costs may be awarded by such Tribunal against any party to an appeal made to the Tribunal and the manner of recovery of such costs;

(l) to provide for matters arising

(i) pending the determination under this Act (whether in the first instance or on appeal) of any claim to a benefit or of any question affecting any person's right to a benefit or any person's liability for contributions to the Fund, or

(ii) out of the revision on appeal of any decision of any such claim or question;

(m) for the suspension of the grant of a benefit pending the review by the Commissioner of the determination upon the claim to that benefit;

(n) as to the date from which any decision on a review or an appeal under this Act is to have effect or to be deemed to have effect;

(nn) in respect of the procedure to be followed in granting housing benefits and benefits relating to medical treatment;

(o) for treating any sum paid to any person under a determination made under this Act or by virtue of any provision of any regulation, which it is subsequently decided was not payable, as properly paid, or for the repayment by him and for the recovery from him of that sum;

(p) the payment of allowances to officers and servants employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act and the method of computing such allowances;

(pp) for the recovery of fees to be charged from employers and the writing off of losses which may be incurred, in connection with the administration of this Act; and

(q) in respect of all matters necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act or giving effect to the principles thereof.

(2) No regulation made by the Minister shall have effect until it is approved by Parliament and notification of such approval is published in the Gazette. Every regulation so approved shall be as valid and effectual as though it were herein enacted.

Interpretation.
[2, 23 of 2021]
[9, 1 of 1985]
