3. Every Municipality, town or Pradeshiya Sabha area shall be an electoral area for the purposes of this Ordinance.

PART I
ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONAL DELIMITATION
COMMITTEE

Establishment of a National Delimitation Committee. [2, 22 of 2012]

3A. (1) The Minister shall, upon the coming into operation of this section, by Order published in the Gazette, establish a National Delimitation Committee (in this Part referred to as the 'National Committee') which shall consist of five persons to be appointed by the Minister, one of whom shall be nominated by him to be the Chairman of the National Committee.

(2) In the event of any vacancy occurring in the membership of the National Committee during their term of office, the Minister shall appoint another person to fill in such vacancy.

(3) The quorum, for any meeting of the National Committee shall be three members and its Chairman shall preside at all meetings of such Committee. In the absence of the Chairman from any meeting of the National Committee, the members present at the meeting shall nominate a member from among themselves to preside at such meeting.

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, the National Committee may regulate the procedure in regard to the conduct of its meetings and the transaction of business at such meetings.

The mandate of the National Committee and the reports to be submitted.

3B. (1) The mandate of the National Committee shall be to make recommendations to the Minister for the division of each local authority area into wards, taking into consideration the requirements set out in subsection (2) and to determine the boundaries of each ward and assign a name and a number to each such ward.

(2) The National Committee shall, in making its recommendation for the division of a local authority area into wards, take into consideration:-

- (a) the ratio of the ethnic composition of the local authority area concerned, and the need to ensure representation on the basis of ethnic ratio;
- (b) the geographical area of the local authority and its physical features;
- (c) the population of the local authority area and the density of such population; and
- (d) the level of economic development of the local authority area.

(3) Where the National Committee is of the view that having taken into consideration the requirements specified in subsection (2), it is appropriate to create a ward which shall be entitled to return more than one member, the National Committee shall recommend the creation of a multi member ward or wards, as the case may be, for any local authority area.

(4) The proceedings of the National Committee shall be conducted in such manner as shall be prescribed.

(5) The National Committee established under section 3A shall be required to fulfill its mandate by such date as shall be determined by the Minister and on the completion of such mandate, submit a report on its recommendations to the Minister.

Order to be published of all boundaries, names and numbers or letters of each ward created for each local authority.

[2, 21 of 2023]
[15, 22 of 2012]
[21, 24 of 1977]

18. (1) Upon the expiry of a period of fourteen days from the date of the publication of the notice under section 16 in respect of the electoral lists of the wards of any electoral area, the elections officer of the district in which the area is situated shall, if any claim or objection has been duly made in respect of the list, publish a notice-

(a) setting out each claim or objection so made;

(b) indicating that at a time and date specified in such notice he will attend at the office of the local authority of the area or at such other place as he may specify in such notice for the purpose of hearing each such claim or objection; and

(c) calling upon every claimant and every person who desires to oppose any claimant, every objector and every person in regard to whom an objection has been made, to appear before him at the date and at the time and place so indicated.

(a) The elections officer shall attend on the date, and at the time and place, indicated in the notice and shall decide each claim or objection set out in the notice after such summary inquiry as he may deem necessary, either on that date or within the period of ten days next succeeding that date.

(b) Before deciding any claim or objection under this section, the elections officer shall give the claimant and every person who desires to oppose the claim or the objector and the person in regard to whom the objection is made, as the case may be, an opportunity of being heard.

(c) The elections officer shall keep a record in writing of all proceedings taken by him under this section for the purpose of deciding any claim or objection.

(3) For the purpose of deciding any claim or objection, the elections officer may administer an oath or affirmation, and any person knowingly making any false statement upon such oath or affirmation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed by the Penal Code for the offence of giving false evidence in a judicial proceeding.

(4) The decision of the elections officer under this section on every claim or objection shall, subject to the provisions of sections 20 and 21, be final and conclusive.

(5) The elections officer shall, after [21, Law 24 deciding all the claims and objections made of 1977] in respect of the electoral lists, make such amendments in the lists as he may deem necessary to give effect to any such decision.

(6) Every person who wilfully makes a false statement or declaration in any claim or objection or at any inquiry held in connection therewith shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees.

(7) The elections officer shall keep order at any inquiry held under this section into any claim or objection, and shall regulate the number of persons to be admitted at a time, and may exclude all persons, except the claimant and persons who desire to oppose the claim or, as the case may be, the objector and the person in regard to whom the objection is made, the police officers on duty, and other persons officially employed for the purposes of the inquiry.

(8) If any person misconducts himself at any inquiry held under this section into any claim or objection, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the elections officer, the elections officer may cause him to be removed forthwith from the place at which the inquiry is being held by any police officer or by any other person authorized in writing by the elections officer.

(9) Any person removed from a place at which an inquiry is being held under this section-

(a) shall not, except with the permission of the elections officer, be allowed to enter that place again during the inquiry; and

19.(1) No person shall be entitled to have his name entered or retained-

(a) in more than one electoral list, whether of the wards of the same electoral area or of different electoral areas; or

(b) more than once in the same electoral list under different qualifying addresses, notwithstanding that he may be qualified to have his name so entered or retained.

(a) Where it appears that a person is qualified to have his name entered or retained-

(i) in more than one electoral list; or

(ii) more than once in the same electoral list under different qualifying addresses, an elections officer shall cause notice to be served upon that person requiring him to specify, within seven days of the date of service of such notice, the electoral list in which he desires to have his name entered or retained, or the qualifying address under which he desires to have his name entered or retained in the same electoral list, as the case may be.

(b) Any notice referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection may be served upon any person by sending it by ordinary letter post to such person or by delivering it to him or to an adult member of his household.

(3) Where, in compliance with a notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (2), a person specifies-

(a) the electoral list in which he desires to have his name entered or retained, and the elections officer of the appropriate district is satisfied that such person is qualified to have his name entered or retained in that list, his name shall be entered or retained in that list and in no other electoral list; or

(b) the qualifying address under which he desires to have his name entered or retained in the same electoral list. and the elections officer of the district in which the ward to which that list relates is situated is satisfied that such person is qualified to have his name entered or retained in that list under that address, his name shall be entered or retained under that address in that list and under no other address in that list.

(4) Where a person fails to comply with a notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (2),-

(a) the appropriate elections officer shall, if the notice required such person to specify the electoral list in which such person desires to have his name entered or retained, determine which one of the electoral lists in which such person is qualified to have his name entered or retained shall be the electoral list in which such name shall be entered or retained, and such name shall be entered or retained in the electoral list determined by such officer and in no other electoral list; or

(b) the appropriate elections officer shall, if the notice required such person to specify the qualifying address under which he desires to have his name entered or retained in the same electoral list, determine which one of the qualifying addresses in the same electoral list under which such person is qualified to have his name entered or retained shall be the address under which such name shall be entered or retained in that list, and such name shall be entered or retained under the qualifying address in that list determined by such officer and under no other qualifying address in that list.

(5) The failure of any person to comply with any notice served under paragraph (a) of subsection (2), or the failure of an elections officer to comply with the provisions of subsection (4) in respect of that person, or the fact that upon such compliance his name is not entered or retained in any electoral list, or under any qualifying address in the same electoral list, specified by such person, shall not affect or prejudice his right to have his name entered or retained, subject to the provisions of subsection (1) and section 82, in any electoral list, or under any qualifying address in the same electoral list, as the case may be, in or under which he is qualified to have his name entered or retained.

Apportionment of women members.

[25, 16 of 2017]

[3, 31 of 2017]

65AA.

(1) Where the number of members elected from any recognized political party or independent group for a Local Authority results in an overhang and thereby exceeds the number ascertained to be elected and returned as members under subsection (3) of section

[4, 1 of 2016]

65B and such number of members so elected do not include any women members, then the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to such recognized political party or independent group.

(2) Where any recognized political party or independent group has received less than twenty per centum of the total number of votes polled in a local authority area, and has less than three members elected or returned, then the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to such recognized political party or independent group.

(3) The apportionment of women members to be elected and returned to each local authority from the recognized political parties and independent groups other than the political parties and the independent groups referred to in subsection (2) of this section, shall be determined by the Commissioner of Elections, taking into consideration the number of valid votes polled by the other recognized political parties and independent groups in all wards of such local authority, and the method of apportionment set out in Article 99A of the Constitution of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka shall mutatis mutandis apply thereto.

(4) Where the number of women members elected for all wards of any local authority area from any recognized political party or independent group other than the recognized political party or independent group referred to in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, is less than the number apportioned in terms of subsection

(3) of this section, then the shortfall in the number of members shall be returned from among the women candidates in the first nomination paper or the additional nomination paper other than the women candidates who have been elected or are disqualified to be a member under section 9.

Candidates entitled 65B. (1) Upon the declaration under section 65, all the members elected for all the wards of the electoral area, the number of members for that local authority to be returned under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance (Chapter 252) paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Urban Councils Ordinance (Chapter 255) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be, shall be apportioned in the manner hereinafter provided for in this section.

(2) The total number of valid votes received by all the candidates of each recognized political party and independent group in a local authority area shall be divided by the total number of members to be elected and returned to the Local Authority Area. The number resulting from such division (any fraction not being taken into account) shall hereinafter in this section be referred to as 'the qualifying number'.

(3) The aggregate of the votes received by the candidates of each recognized political party and independent group in the respective local authority area shall then be divided by the qualifying number, in order to ascertain the number of persons entitled to be elected and returned as members of that local authority. Where the number ascertained by this method is an integer and a fraction, the integer shall be deemed to be the number for the purpose of this subsection.

(4) Upon ascertaining the number of candidates entitled to be elected and returned as members of that local authority by each recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be, in terms of subsection (3), if it is found that the number of members elected from such recognized political party or independent group for that local authority -

(a) exceeds the number ascertained to be elected and returned as members under subsection (3), then such overhang shall be determined by the Commissioner of Elections; or

(b) falls short of the number ascertained to be elected and returned as members under subsection (3), then such additional number of members, shall be returned by the respective secretary of the recognized political party or leader of the independent group from the candidates of the First Nomination Paper or the Additional Nomination Paper other than the candidates who have been elected or are not disqualified to be a member under section 9.

(5) Where at the conclusion of ascertaining the number of members to be returned by any recognized political party or independent group on the method specified in subsection (3), there remains a further number of members to be returned under the proportional representation system as determined under subsection (4), such remaining number shall be allocated on the basis of the highest fraction received by each recognized political party or independent group, as ascertained under subsection (3).

(6) The returning officer shall inform the secretary of the recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case may be, which is entitled to return such number of members as ascertained under subsection (3) of this section and subsection (3) of section 65AA, of the number of members including women members that such recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be, is entitled to be elected and returned from the candidates of the First Nomination Paper or the Additional Nomination Paper other than the candidates who have been elected or are not disqualified to be a member under section 9 under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance (Chapter 252) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Urban Councils Ordinance (Chapter 255) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be, the names of persons who are to be returned as members under that subsection.

(7) The names of the candidates who are returned under this section shall thereafter be declared by the returning officer of the respective electoral area.

(2) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Ordinance, if any payment or contract for payment is knowingly made in contravention of this section either before, during, or after an election, the person making such payment or contract shall be guilty of an illegal practice, and any person receiving such payment or being a party to any such contract, knowing the same to be in contravention of this section, shall also be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3) Subject to any such express exceptions as are or may be made by or under this Ordinance, a person shall not let, lend, employ, hire, borrow or use, or aid or abet any other person to let, lend, employ, hire, borrow or use, any vehicle vessel or animal, in any electoral area during the period commencing one hour before the time of the opening of the poll at an election in that area, and ending one hour after the time of the closure of such poll -

(a) for the purpose of the conveyance of voters to or from the poll; or

(b) for any other purpose, other than -

(i) any legitimate business; or

(ii) any official business, that is to say, the performance of any duty or the discharge of any function accruing from or connected with or incidental to any office, service or employment, held or undertaken or carried on by him.

Any person acting in contravention of this subsection shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this section -

(a) where it is the ordinary business of an elector as an advertising agent to exhibit for payment bills and advertisements, a payment to or contract with such elector, if made in the ordinary course of business, shall not be deemed to be an illegal practice within the meaning of this section;

(b) where electors are unable at an election to reach their polling stations from their place of residence without crossing the sea or a branch or arm thereof or a river, means may be provided for conveying such electors by sea to their polling stations, or to enable them to cross the river in order to reach their polling stations:

(c) the conveyance of a person at his own expense to or from the poll at an election in, or the use by any person at his own expense for the purpose of that conveyance of himself to or from the poll of, any public transport service shall be deemed not to be an illegal practice within the meaning of this section;

(d) where the returning officer of any electoral area is satisfied upon written application in that behalf made to him by any person, or on behalf of such person by any other person not being a candidate, so as to reach such officer seven days before the day on which a poll is to be taken at an election in that area, that such person is unable, by reason of any physical disability to convey himself to and from the poll in foot or in any public transport service referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the returning officer may give such person written authority to use any vehicle, vessel or animal for the purpose of conveying himself to and from the poll, and accordingly the use of a vehicle, vessel or animal for the purpose of such conveyance by such person shall be deemed not to be an illegal practice within the meaning of this section.

(5) Where at any poll taken in any electoral area, any police officer, either of his own motion or after an investigation which he is hereby required to carry out on the complaint of any person, is satisfied that any vehicle, vessel or animal is being used in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) or subsection (3), that officer shall stop and seize such vehicle, vessel or animal, and take it to a police station and detain it until the conclusion of the poll.

(6) A Magistrate may, on the conviction of any person for the commission of an illegal practice within the meaning of this section, make order declaring that any vehicle, vessel or animal used in or in connection with the commission of such practice shall be forfeited to the Republic.
