Short title and date of operation. 1. This Act may be cited as the Pradeshiya Sabhas Act, No. 15 of 1987, and shall come into operation in respect of all or any of its provisions on such date or dates as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette.

PART I

CONSTITUTION OF PRADESHIYA SABHAS

Constitution of Pradeshiya Sabhas. 2. (1) The Minister may, with a view to facilitating the effective participation of the people in local government and development functions, by Order published in the Gazette declare any area to be a Pradeshiya Sabha area for the purposes of this Act and shall define the administrative limits of the area so declared. The administrative limits of every Pradeshiya Sabha area so declared shall, as far as possible, correspond to limits of an Assistant Government Agent's division excluding any areas comprised in a Municipality or a town (within the meaning of the Urban Councils Ordinance) which falls within the limits of such Assistant Government Agent's division. The Minister may by the same Order or by a subsequent Order, constitute a Pradeshiya Sabha for such Pradeshiya Sabha area and assign a name to such Sabha.

(2) Every Pradeshiya Sabha constituted by an Order under subsection (1) shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold and sell property and may sue and be sued in such name.

(3) The common seal of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall remain in the custody of the Secretary of such Sabha, and shall not be affixed to any contract or other instrument on behalf of the Pradeshiya Sabha, except in the presence of the Chairman and the, Secretary of such Sabha, who shall sign their names to such contract or other instrument in token of their presence.

(4) No act or proceeding of a Pradeshiya Sabha constituted by an Order under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the existence of a vacancy among its members or any defect in the election of a member thereof.

Functions of the Pradeshiya Sabhas. 3. The Pradeshiya Sabha constituted for each Pradeshiya Sabha area shall be the local authority within such area and be charged with the regulation, control and administration of all matters relating to public health, public utility services and public thoroughfares and generally with the protection and promotion of the comfort, convenience and welfare of the people and all amenities within such area.

Composition of Pradeshiya Sabhas. 4. (1) Each Pradeshiya Sabha shall consist of such number of members-

[2, 22 of 2017]

[15, 21 of 2012]

(a) equivalent to sixty per centum of the number of members to be elected and returned, for such Pradeshiya Sabha, as specified by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette, based on the number of wards specified in the Orders published under sections 3C and 3D of the Local Authorities Elections Ordinance (Chapter 262);

(b) equivalent to forty per centum of the number of members to be elected and returned for such Pradeshiya Sabha, who shall be returned in terms of section 65B of the Local Authorities Elections Ordinance (Chapter 262); and

(c) determined by the Commissioner under paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section 65B of the Local Authorities Elections Ordinance (Chapter 262).

(2) Where the number constituting forty per centum referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1), is an integer and fraction, the integer shall be deemed to be the number which shall constitute such forty per centum, for the purpose of that subsection.

Term of office of members. 5.

(1) The term of office of each member of a Pradeshiya Sabha elected at a general election shall

(a) in the case of the first general election be calculated from the date specified by the Minister under section 6 ; and

(b) in the case of a member elected at a general election subsequent to the first general election, be calculated from the date of expiration of the term of office of the members of the immediately preceding Pradeshiya Sabha, and shall, unless such member vacates office earlier by death, resignation or removal be for a period of forty-eight months.

(2) The Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette-

(a) curtail the term of office referred to in subsection (1) by appointing, in substitution for the date on which the term of office expires, a day of any month preceding the month on which such term of office expires in that year or in the year immediately preceding that year;

(b) extend such term by appointing, in substitution for the date on which the term of office expires under subsection (1) or on the date appointed under paragraph (a) of this subsection a day of any month after the day on which the term of office expires in that year or in any year subsequent to the year so specified or appointed and thereafter from time to time extend such term by appointing in substitution for the date of expiry of such term specified in the last Order, a later date:

Provided, however, that the period by which such term is extended or the aggregate of the periods by which such term is from time to time extended shall not exceed twelve months.

(3) Where a member is elected in place of a member of a Pradeshiya Sabha who dies, resigns or otherwise vacates office, he shall subject to the provisions of this Act, hold office for the unexpired period of office of his predecessor.

Commencement of term of office of Pradeshiya Sabha and date. 6. The term of office of each Pradeshiya Sabha to be constituted under this Act shall commence on such date as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette. Such date shall be deemed to be the date of the constitution of such Pradeshiya Sabha for all purposes of this Act, and such Pradeshiya Sabha shall be deemed to be constituted on that date.

Vacation of office. 7. Any member of a Pradeshiya Sabha who without leave of the Pradeshiya Sabha first had and obtained fails to attend meetings of the Pradeshiya Sabha for a period of three months shall ipso facto vacate his office.

Chairman and vice Chairman. 8. (1) The Chairman of a Pradeshiya Sabha shall be the chief executive officer of the Pradeshiya Sabha, and all executive acts and responsibilities which are by this Act or any other written law directed or empowered to be done or discharged by the Pradeshiya Sabha may, unless the contrary intention appears; from the context, be done or discharged by the Chairman.

(2) The Chairman may by order in writing delegate to the Vice-Chairman or Secretary or any other officer of the Pradeshiya Sabha any of the powers, duties or functions conferred or imposed upon or vested in the Chairman by this Act or any other written law.

(3) The exercise, discharge or performance by the Vice Chairman or the Secretary or any other officer of the Pradeshiya Sabha of any power, duty or function delegated to him by order of the Chairman, shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions and limited to such purpose or purposes as may be specified in the order: and any such delegation may at any time be varied or cancelled by order of the Chairman.

(4) During the period of absence of the Chairman on a count of illness or other unavoidable cause, the Vice Chairman may exercise the same powers and perform the same duties as the Chairman.

Appointment, powers and duties of Secretary. 9. (1) There shall be appointed a fit and proper person to be or to act as the Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
(2) The Secretary of a Pradeshiya Sabha shall be the chief administrative officer of the Pradeshiya Sabha and shall exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties and functions as are conferred or imposed upon him by this Act or any rules made under this Act or by any other written law for the time being in force.

(3) Where a Pradeshiya Sabha is unable to discharge its functions by reason of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman ceasing to hold office, the Secretary shall, during any period that elapses between the occurrence of the vacancies in respect of those offices and the filling of those vacancies in accordance with the provisions of the Local Authorities Elections Ordinance, have, exercise perform and discharge all the rights, privilege, powers, duties and functions vested in or conferred or imposed on, the Pradeshiya Sabha, the Chairman or Vice-Chairman by this Act or by any other written law.

Power of Minister to vary limits of Pradeshiya Sabha area and number, of members and to dissolve and replace Pradeshiya Sabha.

[2, 14 of 1999]

9A. The Minister may at any time by Order published in the Gazette-

(a) vary the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha area, in a manner consistent with the provisions of section 2 ;

(b) vary the number of members determined under section 4 for any Pradeshiya Sabha, in accordance with the principles set out in that section ;

(c) dissolve any existing Pradeshiya Sabha and direct that it shall be replaced by new Pradeshiya Sabha to be constituted in lieu of such existing Sabha.. whenever it appears to him to be expedient so to do upon any variation of the limits of the Pradeshiya Sabha area for which the existing Sabha was constituted ;

(d) dissolve any Pradeshiya Sabha for the purpose of constituting in its place a Municipal Council or an Urban Council. In constituting a Municipal Council, the Minister shall comply with the provisions of section 2 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance and shall also have regard to the development or amenities of the area for which such Municipal Council is to be constituted; and in constituting an Urban Council, the Minister shall comply with the provisions of section 2 of the Urban Councils Ordinance ;

Provided that no Order made by the Minister under this section shall come into force until after the expiration of the terms of office of the members of any existing Pradeshiya Sabha referred to in the Order.

New Pradeshiya Sabha to be successor of existing Sabha. [2, 14 of 1999]

9B. Where any new Sabha is constituted under section 9A in lieu of any Pradeshiya Sabha which is dissolved -

(a) the new Sabha shall, from the date of the constitution thereof, be the successor of the dissolved Sabha for all purposes relating to the Pradeshiya Sabha area or any part thereof for which the dissolved Sabha was constituted, in so far as such area or part thereof is included within the administrative limits of the Pradeshiya Sabha area for which the new Sabha is constituted ;

Subject to the powers and responsibilities by Jaw belonging to any other authority, it shall be the duty of the Pradeshiya Sabha and every such Pradeshiya Sabha is hereby empowered, to take all necessary measures for securing and maintaining all public rights, interests, and amenities arising out of, or in connection with, all thorough fares or upon spaces within its area and for utilizing, regulating, adapting, and developing such thoroughfares or open spaces for public purposes.

Thorough fares vested in Pradeshiya Sabha. 23. All thoroughfares within the Pradeshiya Sabha area, other than principal thoroughfares, except in so far as such thoroughfares are already vested by virtue of any other enactment, shall be deemed to be vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha of that area.

Pradeshiya Sabha to demarcate and publish a list of roads and paths. 24. (1) It shall be the duty of every Pradeshiya Sabha within three years of the coming into force of these provisions or within such further period as may in the special circumstances of any case be allowed by the Minister

- (a) to demarcate by permanent marks the limits of the roads and paths maintained by the Pradeshiya Sabha and cause to be prepared plans of all such roads and paths; and
- (b) to cause notices to be published in the prescribed manner setting out a list of such roads and paths.

(2) Upon the publication of such notices any party claiming to be the owner of land from which such road or path has been demarcated shall within the time prescribed by such notice institute action in the appropriate court for establishing his title to such land.

(3) After the expiration of a period of three months and before the expiration of a period of six months from the date on which the notice under subsection (1) is published in the Gazette, the Pradeshiya Sabha shall cause to be published a notice in the prescribed manner setting out a list of all such roads and paths as set out in the notice published under subsection (1)

- (a) excluding those roads and paths or portions of roads and paths in respect of which no final determination had been made in any action instituted as required by subsection (2);

(b) with the necessary alterations made in the demarcation of the limits of such roads and paths and in such plans in respect of which a final determination had been made in any action instituted as required by subsection (2).

(4) Where a final determination has been made on any action instituted as required by subsection (2) after the publication of the notice under subsection (3), the Pradeshiya Sabha shall cause a notice, to be published in the prescribed manner, setting out a supplementary list of such roads and paths or portions of roads and paths. Before the publication of this notice the necessary alterations shall be made in the demarcation of the limits of the roads and paths and in the plans on the basis of the final determination made in respect of any action instituted as required by subsection (2).

(5) Upon the publication of such notice under subsection (3) or (4), all such roads and paths or portions of such roads and paths as defined in such notices and depicted by such plans shall be deemed to be vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha.

(6) Whenever any road or path or any portion of any road or path vested in a Pradeshiya Sabha ceases to be used as a road or path the Pradeshiya Sabha shall publish an amendment to the notice under subsection (3) or (4).

Prescription.

25. Neither the provisions of the Prescription Ordinance, nor those of any other law relating to the acquisition of rights by virtue of possession or user, shall apply in the case of the roads within the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha; and no person shall be entitled to any exclusive rights of ownership, possession or use over or in respect of any such road or any portion thereof by reason of his having, either before Or after the coming into operation of this Act, had possession, or use of any description whatsoever of such road or portion thereof.

Notices how served.

26. Every notice required to be given under this part may be served either personally upon such person, or by leaving it with some member of his household, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of his residence.

Power of Pradeshiya Sabha

27. The Pradeshiya Sabha of each Pradeshiya Sabha area may within that area to construct new and improve existing thoroughfares.

- (a) layout and construct new roads, streets, bridges, tunnels or other thoroughfares;
- (b) widen, open, enlarge or otherwise improve or turn, divert, discontinue, or stop up, whether in whole or in part, any public street or thoroughfare, not being a principal thoroughfare, and with the sanction of the Minister in charge of the subject of highways, any principal thoroughfare, making due compensation to the owner or occupier of any property required for such purposes, or any person whose legal rights are thereby infringed.

Acquisition of lands for diversions or enlargements.

28.(1) If in connection with the turning, diversion, widening, opening, enlargement, or improvement of any thoroughfare it becomes necessary for any Pradeshiya Sabha to take possession, for public use, of the land of any person, it shall be lawful for such Pradeshiya Sabha to make an agreement with the owner for the compensation to be paid for such land, and for any building, boundary wall, gateway, fence or tree standing thereon, either by allowing him to possess the ground, or part of the ground, of the former thoroughfare, or by the grant of other land in exchange or by payment of money or by any two or more of such methods.

(2) Any land of which possession is taken by a Pradeshiya Sabha in pursuance of any agreement under subsection (1) shall vest in the Pradeshiya Sabha without any formal transfer thereof, and the certificate of the Chairman that a person has been allowed by the Pradeshiya Sabha to possess any part of the ground of any former road or any land given in exchange under subsection (1), together with a survey thereof, shall be sufficient proof of the right of such person to such ground or land.

(3) Where a Pradeshiya Sabha cannot agree with the owner of any land as to the compensation to be paid under subsection (1), or where such owner cannot be found, or where the Pradeshiya Sabha does not deem it advisable to enter into any agreement with the owner of any land, then proceedings may be taken to obtain possession of such land and for compensating to the owner, in the manner prescribed by section 128.

(4) Every agreement under subsection (1) shall be in writing, and section 2 of the Prevention of Frauds Ordinance shall not apply to any such agreement or to any certificate issued under subsection (2).

- Gifts of lands required for diversion or enlargement of thorough fare.
29. If in connection with the turning, diversion, widening, opening, enlargement or improvement of any thoroughfare, it becomes necessary for any Pradeshiya Sabha to take possession of the land of any person for public use, and if the person claiming to be the owner of the land desires to make a gift of the land to the Pradeshiya Sabha for such purpose, a record in writing to that effect duly signed by such person in the presence of the Chairman or of a person authorized by the Chairman in writing in that behalf shall be sufficient to vest the land in the Pradeshiya Sabha. No such record shall be deemed to be invalid or of no effect in law by reason only that the requirements of section 2 of the Prevention of Frauds Ordinance have not been complied with as to attestation by a notary public and by witnesses.
- Power to dispose of discontinued street.
30. Whenever any street or chief thoroughfare or any part of any street or thoroughfare vested in a Pradeshiya Sabha ceases to be used as a street or thoroughfare, the Pradeshiya Sabha, with the prior approval of the Minister, may sell, lease or exchange such street or other thoroughfare or part thereof.
- Power to take land adjoining new street for building purposes.
31. In laying out or constructing any new street or thoroughfare, or in turning, diverting, widening, opening, enlarging, or otherwise improving, any street or thoroughfare, a Pradeshiya Sabha may, in addition to the land required for the purposes of the carriageways and footways thereof, also purchase the land necessary for houses and buildings to form the said street or thoroughfare, and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the same, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (x), (xi) and (xii) of section 8 and subject to such stipulations and conditions as to the class and description of houses or building to be erected thereon as the Pradeshiya Sabha may think fit.
- Other powers of a Pradeshiya Sabha.
32. It shall be lawful for a Pradeshiya Sabha without prejudice to any other powers vested in it, to do any of the following acts:
- (a) to water the streets;
 - (b) to remove encroachments and obstructions in or upon any street or thoroughfare subject to the condition that where the person responsible therefore is known to the Pradeshiya Sabha such action shall be taken by the Pradeshiya Sabha only after notice has been given to him, and he fails to remove such encroachments or obstructions within such time as may be specified in the notice or with due diligence;

(c) to paint up the names of streets and the numbers of houses or tenements on any private property;

(d) to shut up and secure deserted houses;

(e) to recover in the manner hereinafter provided, the expenses incurred by any action taken under paragraphs (b) and (d) hereof from the person whose act or neglect shall have rendered such action necessary.

BUILDING ALONG THOROUGHFARES

Notice of intended building along a thorough fare. 47. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person to commence any building, boundary wall, gateway or fence along any thoroughfare within the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha or to erect any temporary fence or enclosure on any such thoroughfare for the purpose of commencing or repairing any such building, boundary wall or gateway without giving one calendar month's previous notice in writing to the Pradeshiya Sabha.

(2) Any person neglecting to give the notice prescribed by subsection (1) or to remove any building, boundary wall, gateway or fence erected without such notice when he is required in writing to do so by the Pradeshiya Sabha under this subsection, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable with a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and with a further fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each day he suffers or allows such building, boundary wall, gateway or fence to remain after he is required to remove as aforesaid.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Pradeshiya Sabha to remove or cause to be removed any building, boundary wall, gateway, fence or enclosure, commenced or erected without the notice prescribed by subsection (1) and to recover the costs of such removal in the manner provided in section 59 for the recovery of the costs therein mentioned.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deprive any Pradeshiya Sabha of the power, hereinafter conferred on such Pradeshiya Sabha, of removing any such building, boundary wall, gateway, fence, or enclosure, which may subsequently be discovered to be an encroachment on a thoroughfare, notwithstanding that no proceedings may have been taken by the Pradeshiya Sabha on the notice given in respect of such building, boundary wall, gateway, fence or enclosure under subsection (1).

Erection of temporary fences and enclosures.

48.(1) Nothing contained in section 47 shall be construed to prevent any public officer, duly authorized in that behalf, from making temporary use of any part of any thoroughfare for the public service, or to prevent the Pradeshiya Sabha from granting a licence to the inhabitants of the Pradeshiya Sabha area for the erection of temporary fences and enclosures on any thoroughfare, in connection with the building, pulling down, or referring of their houses and other buildings, or for temporary decorations within that area on such terms and conditions as the Pradeshiya Sabha may deem proper, including conditions as to-

(a) the length, breadth and height of such enclosure;

(b) the space to be allowed for carriages and carts, or boats, to pass along the thoroughfare; and

(c) the exhibition by the person obtaining such licence, daily between sunset and sunrise throughout the period during which the fence or enclosure is maintained or continued by him, of a light sufficient to indicate clearly the exact situation of the fence or enclosure or any obstruction caused thereby.

(2) Every holder of a licence granted under subsection (1) who commits a breach of any of the conditions of such licence and every person who removed or extinguished any light placed and kept in accordance with the requirement of the conditions of such licence, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable with a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Building limits along roads.

49. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, or other law it shall not be lawful for any person

(a) to erect any building, boundary wall or gateway within a limit (hereinafter referred to as the 'building limit') of twenty-five feet from the centre of any road which is used or intended for vehicular traffic within limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha and in respect of which street lines providing for a roadway exceeding fifty feet in width have not been defined under this Act or the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance:

Provided, however, that the Pradeshiya Sabha, shall have power to authorize the erection of a boundary wall or gateway on condition that the owners of the premises shall execute an undertaking that no compensation shall be payable in respect of such boundary wall or gateway in the event of the land on which such wall or gateway is situated being required for a public purposes; or

(b) except under the authority of a licence granted by the Pradeshiya Sabha to re-erect or to make any addition to any such building, boundary wall or gateway within such limit:

Provided always that nothing contained in this subsection shall apply to any repairs effected in any building, boundary wall or gateway existing at the date of the constitution of the Pradeshiya Sabha or in the case of

(i) any street which is intended for foot traffic only and is not less than twenty feet in width; or

(ii) any back lane or other service passage which is intended only for the purposes of scavenging or conservancy or other special sanitary purpose and is not less than ten feet in width where such street, lane or passage has been defined or approved by the Pradeshiya Sabha.

For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, 'repairs' shall not be deemed to include any work of re-erection or re-construction or the addition of any new part.

Demarcation of building limits.

50.(1) It shall be the duty of every Pradeshiya Sabha, within three years after the date of the constitution thereof or within such further period as may in the special circumstances of any case be allowed by the Minister or upon the directions of the Minister, and within such period of time if any, which he may allow

(a) to demarcate by permanent marks the building limit prescribed by section 49 on every road referred to in that section;

(b) in the case of each road on which the building limit has been so demarcated, to ascertain and record the value of each building, boundary wall, or gateway or part thereof situated or extending within such limit; and

(c) in the case of any road on which the building limit has not been demarcated, to ascertain and record the value of each building, boundary wall or gateway in respect of which a licence under section 49 is granted by the Pradeshiya Sabha for the purposes of any re-erection or addition.

(2) The value of any building, boundary wall or gateway shall, for the purposes of subsection (1)

(a) be fixed by agreement between the Pradeshiya Sabha, and the owner or owners of the building, boundary wall or gateway; or

(b) where it is not so fixed by agreement, be determined by the arbitration of two arbitrators, one nominated by the owner or owners of the building, boundary wall or gateway and the other by the Pradeshiya Sabha, or if such arbitrators cannot agree upon the said value, by an umpire chosen jointly by the two arbitrators.

(3) In determining the value of any building, boundary wall or gateway or any part thereof for the purposes of subsection (2), the following principles shall be followed:

(a) where any building, boundary wall or gateway, or any part thereof, the removal of which would render the remaining part useless, is situated within the building limit of any road, and, where, for that reason, at the time of the widening of the road the removal of the entire building, boundary wall or gateway will become necessary, the value of the entire building, boundary wall or gateway shall be determined; and such value shall be the difference between the market value of the premises, that is to say, of the building, boundary wall or gateway together with the land attached thereto, at the time of the demarcation of the building limit, and the market value at that time of the land as distinct from the building, boundary wall or gateway;

(b) where only a part of a building, boundary wall or gateway is situated within the building limit of any road, and after the severance and removal of such part the remaining part will be capable of adaptation either to the original purpose of the building, boundary wall or gateway or to any other purpose permitted by law, the value of the part within the building limit shall alone be determined; and such value shall be the aggregate of

(i) the estimated cost of the severance and removal of that part of the building, boundary wall or gateway; and

(ii) the estimated cost, in the case of a building of adapting the part of the building which will then remain to the purpose for which the building is used at the time of the demarcation of the building limit, and in the case of a boundary wall or gateway, of completing such additions or repairs as may be necessary;

(iii) where, at the time of the demarcation of the building limit on any road, the value of any building, boundary wall or gateway is found to have been increased by any alteration or improvement effected in the building, boundary wall or gateway after the date of the constitution of the Pradeshiya Sabha, then notwithstanding that the alteration or improvement may have been authorized by a licence under section 49, the amount of the increase shall not be taken into account unless the alteration or improvement was necessary for the maintenance of the building, boundary wall or gateway in a proper state of repair.

(4) Every award or agreement made or entered into, as the case may be, under subsection (2) in respect of the value of any building, boundary wall or gateway or part thereof, shall specify the particular paragraph or paragraphs of subsection (3) in accordance with which the value aforesaid was fixed or determined.

(5) The value of each building, boundary wall or gateway or part thereof situate within a building limit, fixed or determined as provided in subsection (2) shall be recorded in the office of the Pradeshiya Sabha together with all agreements or awards by which the value so recorded may be verified.

(6) For the purpose of demarcating the building limit of any road it shall be lawful for any officer, servant or workman of the Pradeshiya Sabha, to enter upon any private land, adjoining the road and to erect permanent marks at convenient places, taking all such precautions as may be necessary to ensure that as little damage as possible is caused to the land compensation shall be paid by the Pradeshiya Sabha for any damage so occasional.

(7) Where the building limit of any road has been demarcated under this section, nothing in any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to preclude the Pradeshiya Sabha, from letting or leasing any part of the road not included within such building limit for the purpose of affording; building facilities along the road, or from using or permitting the use of any such part for any public purpose.

(8) Nothing in this section shall apply to, or in the case of any road in respect of which street lines providing for a roadway exceeding fifty feet in width have been defined under this Act or the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance or any other law.

Condition to be attached to all Licenses under section 49.

51.(1) It shall be a condition of any licence granted by a Pradeshiya Sabha under section 49 for the re-erection of or for any addition to any building, boundary wall or gateway within the building limit of any road that in the event of the land on which the building, boundary wall or gateway is situated being acquired at any time thereafter for the purpose of the widening of the road, the compensation payable in respect of such building, boundary wall or gateway shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 53.

(a) Full particulars of every licence containing a condition of the description set out in subsection (1) and of the land and the building, boundary wall or gateway to which the condition relates, shall be entered by the Pradeshiya Sabha in a register to be kept for the purpose at the office of the Pradeshiya Sabha and the Chairman shall cause a certified copy of the entry so made in respect of each land and building, boundary wall or gateway and the condition of the licence relating thereto, to be registered in the office of the Register of Lands. The Registrar of Lands shall register all such copies free of any charge or duty.

(b) Upon the registration of any entry under this subsection the condition of the licence set out in such entry shall be binding upon the land or building or boundary wall or gateway affected thereby, in accordance with the tenor of such condition, into whomsoever ownership or possession the land or building or boundary wall or gateway may at any time pass.

(c) The register kept at the office of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall be made available for inspection to any person interested, at any time when the office is open for the transaction of business.

(d) The provisions of section 2 of the Prevention of Frauds Ordinance shall not apply to any entry or copy of an entry referred to in this subsection.

(3) Subject to the condition referred to in subsection (2) any person who is otherwise entitled to re-erect or make any addition to any building, boundary wall or gateway shall be entitled to a licence to re-erect or make such addition to such building, boundary wall or gateway within the building limit specified in section 49:

Provided that no part of the building, boundary wall or gateway so re-erected or added to shall, upon such re-erection or addition, extend nearer to the centre of the road than it so extended in its original condition.

(4) The expression 're-erect', with reference to a building, includes the restoration of any wall forming part of the building or of any support to the building which has been demolished or otherwise destroyed to or within a distance of five feet from the ground, but does not include any operation, which, in the opinion of the Pradeshiya Sabha, may reasonably be considered to be a repair to the wall or support.

Power of Pradeshiya Sabha to deal with building boundary wall or gateway erected in contravention of law.

52. If any person erects or re-erects any building, 'boundary wan or gateway, or makes any addition to any building, boundary wall or gateway, within the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha in contravention of any of the provisions of section 49, the Pradeshiya Sabha shall be entitled to cause such building, boundary wall or gateway, or such addition, to be demolished or removed by any officer or eleventh, and for that purpose the Pradeshiya Sabha shall have the same rights of entry and survey, and shall have the same power of removal, abatement and recovery of costs as are vested by this part in a Pradeshiya Sabha for the purposes of the abatement or removal of any construction or encroachment or supposed obstruction or encroachment upon a thoroughfare, and as the provisions of this Part relating to such obstructions or encroachments, as far as they are applicable, shall apply accordingly with such modifications as may be necessary.

Principles of assessing compensation in respect of land developed by building.

53.(1) Where any land which is situated within the building limit demarcated on a road, and which has been developed by the erection of any building wholly or partly within that building limit is acquired for the purposes of the widening of that road, the determination or the compensation payable in such case under the Land Acquisition Act shall be subject to the following special provisions notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in that Act:

(a) no compensation shall be allowed in respect of any building, boundary wall or gateway which at any time after the date of the constitution of the Pradeshiya Sabha has been erected in contravention of section 49 or re-erected or added to without the licence required by that section;

(b) the value assigned to the land as distinct from the buildings thereon shall be the market value of the land at the time of the acquisition;

(c) where the land is only a portion of any premises belonging to anyone person or group of persons:

(i) if the remaining portion of such premises is a building of the same character as the building which is to be acquired, the market value assigned to the land shall be one-half of the value at that time, of similar land in the vicinity possessing a road frontage; and

(ii) if the remaining portion of such premises is not of sufficient depth for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (i), the market value assigned to the land shall be the value at that time of similar land in the vicinity possessing a road frontage;

(d) regard shall be had to any increase, in the value of any other land or building belonging to the same owner or owners, which is likely to accrue from any widening of the road carried out after the acquisition of the land or the demolition of any building, boundary wall or gateway situated thereon;

(e) no additional compensation shall be allowed in respect of the compulsory nature of the acquisition whether in the case of the building or in the case of the land.

(2) In any case referred to in paragraph (c)(ii) of subsection (1), the owner shall have the option of requiring the Pradeshiya Sabha to acquire the entirety of his premises at the rate at which the portion which the Pradeshiya Sabha originally proposed to acquire, was valued under that paragraph.

SPECIAL USER OF THOROUGHFARES

Power of Pradeshiya Sabha to authorize the uses of public thoroughfares for special purposes.

68. Any Pradeshiya Sabha may from time to time, and either independently or in combination with any other Pradeshiya Sabha, subject to the terms of any special enactment in that behalf, enter into an agreement with any person or body of persons or any local authority constituted by law (hereinafter referred to as 'the promoters'), to authorize such promoters for the purpose of the supply of gas, electrical energy, water or other public service (not being a tramway service or any other public vehicular communication service), or any private enterprise or object, to make such user of thoroughfares under the control of the Pradeshiya Sabha other than principal thoroughfares, to make such user of principal thoroughfare with the prior approval of the Minister in charge of the subject of thoroughfares, and to execute all such works and to set up or maintain all such erections or plants thereon or therein as may in the opinion of the Pradeshiya Sabha be necessary for the purpose of the effective establishment or maintenance or the modification or development of such public service or such enterprise or object.

By-laws.

69.(1) For the purpose of any agreement referred to in section 68 and for the purpose of securing the observance of the respective rights and obligations of the public, the Pradeshiya Sabha and the promoters in connection with any public service or any private enterprise or object to which the agreement relates, the Pradeshiya Sabha (exception so far as provision is made by any special enactment in that behalf) may make by-laws

(a) authorizing the promoters and their agents, servants, or workmen, or the agents, servants or workmen of the Pradeshiya

Sabha, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the by-laws

(i) to break up the soil, metal, and pavement of any thoroughfare vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha;

(ii) to open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such thoroughfare;

(iii) to erect, set up, or lay down either permanently or temporarily in, along, under or over such thoroughfare, any post, pillar, lamp, wire, piperails, or other plant, material or works;

(iv) to alter the position of any public line, wire or other apparatus or plant in or about such thoroughfare for the purpose of any other public service;

(b) requiring the promoters to do as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers granted by the said by-laws, and to make compensation for any damage which may be done in the execution of such powers;

(c) requiring the promoters to complete any work which they may be authorized to execute under such by laws with convenient speed, and to reconstruct, repair or restore any thorough fare, sewer, drain, tunnel, or my plant or apparatus which they may be authorized to remove, alter or interfere with, in pursuance of such by-laws;

(d) requiring the promoters to remove and carry away all rubbish occasioned by their operations, and to cause proper precautions to be taken for the safety of the public in connection therewith;

(e) prohibiting any interference with or obstruction to any operations authorized by any by-law under this section.

(2) No by-law under this section shall authorize or empower any entry to do made, any material or plant to be erected or deposited or any work to be executed upon any building or land which is not vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha without the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof first had and obtained.

Expenses caused by extraordinary traffic.

70.(1) Where it appears to any Pradeshiya Sabha that, having regard to the average expense of maintaining thoroughfares in the neighbourhood, extraordinary expenses may have been incurred by the Pradeshiya Sabha in maintaining any thoroughfares of which it has control, by reason of the damage caused or likely to be caused by the carnage of any excessive weight or the passing of any extraordinary traffic thereon, the Pradeshiya Sabha shall be entitled to recover from any person by whose order, or in consequence of whose order, such weight or traffic was carried or caused, the amount of such expenses as may be proved to the satisfaction of a competent court to have been incurred by the Pradeshiya Sabha by person of the damage arising or likely to arise from such excessive weight or extraordinary traffic, or, where more than one person is responsible for such excessive weight or extraordinary traffic, may recover from each of such persons such proportion of the amount of the expenses so incurred, as in the opinion of the court may fairly be assigned to him.

(2) Any person against whom expenses are or may be recoverable by a Pradeshiya Sabha under this section may enter into an agreement with the Pradeshiya Sabha for making payment to the Pradeshiya Sabha by way of compensation in respect of such weight or traffic, and, where payment is made in accordance with such agreement, no proceedings under this section shall be instituted or maintained against such person.

(3) Proceedings for the recovery of any expenses under this section shall be commenced within twelve months of the time at which such expenses were incurred, or where any expenses incurred are the consequence of any particular contract or work extending over a long period, shall be commenced not later than six months after the completion of the contract or work.

POWERS, DUTIES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS, & c.

Powers conferred on officers in charge of public works by whom to be executed.

71. In respect of all thoroughfares other than principal thoroughfares within the limits of a Pradeshiya Sabha, the Chairman of the Pradeshiya Sabha and all persons authorized in writing by him in that behalf, shall and may by themselves, their servants, workmen, and labourers, exercise the several powers and authorities conferred by this Part on officers in charge of works to which this Part is applicable.

Survey by proper officers to be conclusive evidence.

72. If any plan or Survey, made by or by the direction of the Pradeshiya Sabha or any authority of which the Pradeshiya Sabha is the successor, is produced in evidence in any proceeding under this Part, such plan or survey shall be deemed and taken to be proof of the facts exhibited therein, in so far as the claim of the Pradeshiya Sabha is concerned, unless the contrary be established by the party contesting such claim.

- Compensation for injury to property by authorised officers. 73. Every person who sustains any loss or damage by reason of the exercise by or by the authority of the Chairman of any Pradeshiya Sabha, of any of the powers or authorities conferred by this Part upon officers in charge of works to which it is applicable, shall (except where the loss or damage is incurred through the act, default, or neglect of such person) be entitled to receive compensation or such loss or damage, if he makes application in that behalf to the Pradeshiya Sabha at any time before the expiration of three months after the claim for compensation has arisen. Where any such person fails to make such application within the aforesaid period, his claim to compensation for the alleged loss or damage shall be disallowed, and he shall be barred from recovering such compensation.
- Arbitration. 74. Where for any reason, the amount of any compensation payable under section 73 is not agreed upon between the Pradeshiya Sabha and the claimant, such amount may be determined by two arbitrators, of whom one shall be nominated by the Pradeshiya Sabha and the other by the claimant. If the two arbitrators cannot agree, they shall appoint an umpire, and the award of the arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, given in terms of the reference agreed to by the Pradeshiya Sabha and the claimant, shall be final.
- Officers and contractors leaving stones, & c. on thoroughfares at night. 75. If any officer of a Pradeshiya Sabha in charge of any work on any thoroughfare, or any person engaged upon any thoroughfare in pursuance of any contract with any Pradeshiya Sabha, lays, or causes to be laid any heap of stones, gravel, rubbish, or other matter whatsoever upon the thoroughfare, and allows such heap to remain there at night, to the danger or personal damage of any person passing along the thoroughfare (all due and reasonable precautions not having been taken by him to prevent any such danger or damage) such officer or person shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.
- Road officer or road contractor not liable to fine except in certain cases. 76. Save as in sections 75 and 218 provided, nothing contained in this Part shall render any officer of a Pradeshiya Sabha in charge of any work on any thoroughfare, or any contractor under the Pradeshiya Sabha, liable to any prosecution or fine under this Part for any act done by such officer in the discharge of the duties of his office, or by such contractor in the necessary execution or performance of his contract.

Police officers and Grama seva Niladharis to enforce provisions of this Part. 77. It shall be the duty of all officers of the police force and of all Grama Seva Niladharis generally, to aid and assist in the prevention of all offences against this Part within the areas for which they are respectively appointed.

PART IV

(2) If any building containing furniture and registered with the Pradeshiya Sabha as a building intended to be let as a furnished building is or remains untenanted, a proportionate remission of one-half of the rates payable in respect of such building may be allowed for the period during which such building is or remains untenanted.

(3) The period for which a remission is allowed under subsections (1) and (2) shall in respect of any building, commence on the day on which the Pradeshiya Sabha receives a written notice of its being untenanted and terminate on the date on which it is re-occupied.

Provided that, the said period shall terminate on a date one month prior to the said date of re-occupation if within three days of the re-occupation, notice thereof is not given to the Pradeshiya Sabha. Every notice under this subsection shall contain an address to which all communications arising therefrom may be posted.

(4) When with reference to any claim for remission under this section a dispute arises regarding the period during which any building is or remains untenanted, a written notice of the decision of the Pradeshiya Sabha thereon shall be posted to the last of the addresses given under subsection (3) and such decision shall be final, unless written application for its revision is presented to the Pradeshiya Sabha within seven days from the date upon which such notice is posted and unless such decision is in consequence revised by the Pradeshiya Sabha.

Adoption of previous assessment or verification.

146.(1) A Pradeshiya Sabha shall prepare a new assessment or verification only when directed generally or specially by the Minister. The Minister may direct the preparation of a new assessment or verification in respect of all or any class or species of immovable property within the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha having regard to the provision of: new services or the improvement of existing services within the limits of such Pradeshiya Sabha area. Except when a new assessment or verification is carried out on the directions of the Minister, the Pradeshiya Sabha shall adopt the assessment or verification for the preceding year with such alteration as may, in particular cases, be deemed necessary, as the assessment or verification for the following year.

(2) The notice of assessment or verification shall be given in the prescribed manner.

Power of Pradeshiya Sabha

147. (1) A Pradeshiya Sabha may, impose and levy any of the following taxes and licence duties within the limits of any to impose taxes and licence duties.

Pradeshiya Sabha area:

- (a) a tax on vehicles and animals;
- (b) a duty in respect of licences issued by the Pradeshiya Sabha; and
- (c) any other form of tax approved by the Minister and confirmed by resolution of Parliament.

(2) Where the Pradeshiya Sabha, in imposing any tax under this section for any year resolves to levy without alteration the same tax as was in force during the preceding year, the approval of the Minister shall not be required for the imposition and levy of such tax.

Vehicles and animals tax.

148.(1) The tax on vehicles and animals which a Pradeshiya Sabha is authorized to impose by section 147 shall be an annual tax in respect of all the vehicles and animals specified in the Fourth Schedule and ordinarily used or to be used within the limits of any Pradeshiya Sabha at the rates specified in that Schedule.

(2) The tax on vehicles and animals shall not be leviable or payable in respect of

- (a) any vehicle or animal which is the property of the State or of the Pradeshiya Sabha; or
- (b) vehicles kept for sale by bona fide dealers in such vehicles, and not used for any other purpose; or
- (c) vehicles subject to a licence duty under section 3 of the Vehicles Ordinance or to a tax under any enactment for the time being in force relating to motor vehicles.

(3) The tax on vehicles and animals shall be payable annually in advance on such date as may be ordered by the Pradeshiya Sabha or prescribed by by-laws.

(4) The tax on vehicles and animals shall be payable by each person in whose possession or custody or control any vehicle or animal liable to a tax may be found as soon as it has been for thirty days used or kept for use within the limits of the Pradeshiya Sabha area, but no person shall be liable under this section in respect of any vehicle or animal which has been in his possession for less than thirty days.

(5) No person by reason of the transfer of ownership shall be liable to pay tax on any vehicle or animal on which the tax has already been paid for the year in which the ownership was transferred.

(6) Where any vehicle or animal liable to any tax under this Act is used or intended to be used within the limits of more than one Pradeshiya Sabha, such vehicle or animal shall only be liable to one such tax in respect of the limits of the Pradeshiya Sabha within which it is principally used or intended to be used, and if any question arises as to the limits within which any vehicle or animal liable to any such tax is principally used or intended to be used, the question shall be determined by the Assistant Commissioner.

(7) If any person liable to pay tax leviable under this section fails to pay such tax within seven days after demand, the Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall report the failure to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction over the area for which such Pradeshiya Sabha is constituted and the Court shall proceed to recover the amount due as if it were a fine imposed by Court, notwithstanding that such amount exceeds the amount of fine which a Magistrate may impose in the exercise of his ordinary jurisdiction and the amount so recovered shall be paid into the Pradeshiya Sabha Fund.

Power of Pradeshiya Sabha to levy certain licence duties.

149. The licence duty a Pradeshiya Sabha is authorized to levy under section 147 in respect of any licence issued by the Pradeshiya Sabha authorizing the use of any premises or place for any of the purposes described in this Act or in any by-law made thereunder shall be determined from time to time by the Pradeshiya Sabha according to the annual value of the premises so licensed, and where such licence authorizes the use of such premises for the purposes of any trade, having regard to (a) the annual value of such premises; (b) the turnover of business of such trade; (c) the profit that is likely to be earned in such trade; and (d) the essential nature of the goods or services supplied in the course of such trade:

Provided that where the annual value of such premises falls within the limits of any item in Column I set out below, the maximum duty shall not exceed the sum set out in the corresponding entry in Column II:

Column I	Column II
Where the annual value does not exceed Rs. 500/-	Rs. 750/-
Where the annual value exceed Rs. 750/- but does not exceed 1500/-	Rs. 750/-

Where the annual value exceed Rs. 1500/- Rs. 1000/-

Provided further, that where any such premises are used for the purposes of a hotel, restaurant or lodging house, and such hotel, restaurant or lodging house is registered with or approved or recognized by the Sri Lanka Tourist Board for the purposes of the Tourist Development Act, No. 14 of 1968, the duty so levied shall be according to the takings of the hotel, restaurant or lodging house for the year preceding the year in which the licence duty is levied, and shall not exceed one per centum of such takings. Where such hotel, restaurant or lodging house is in its first year of operation, the licence duty shall be determined and levied according to the annual value of such premises.

For the purposes of this section, 'takings' in relation to a hotel, restaurant or lodging house means the total amount received or receivable from transactions entered into in respect of that hotel, restaurant or lodging house or for services performed in carrying on the hotel, restaurant or lodging house.

(ii) fifteen per centum on the amount of rate due on bare lands and residential premises; and

(iii) twenty per centum on the amount of rate due on properties other than bare lands and residential premises, shall be made in respect of the cost of issue of the warrant;

(b) a charge of ten per centum of the amount of the rate, tax, rent or fee to be levied under the warrant may be made in any case, where goods are removed after seizure under the warrant and a further charge not exceeding twenty-five cents per day shall be made for keeping such goods in safe custody during detention but so however, that no such charge shall be made in respect of detention for more than one month;

(c) in the case of the seizure of immovable property or where goods seized are not removed after seizure, a charge not exceeding three rupees per day shall be made for keeping a person in possession of the property or goods;

(d) a charge of ten per centum of the amount of the rate, tax, rent or fee to be levied under the warrant may be made in any case where the property seized is advertised for sale but no sale takes place due to the rates, taxes, rents or fees and costs due being paid before the sale;

(e) in case of seizure of immovable property a charge of ten per centum of the amount of the rate, tax, rent or fee to be levied under the warrant may be made in respect of the cost of issue of notice of seizure; and

(f) where a sale takes place a charge not exceeding two and a half per centum of the proceeds of sale shall be made in respect of the cost of sale.

Seizure of property.

162.(1) Subject of the provisions of sections 160 and 161 it shall be the duty of the collector or other officer to whom the warrant is issued under this Part for the seizure and sale of any property, to effect any such seizure as far as possible in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Such movable property wherever situated of the owner as can be found and as may, in the opinion of the collector or other officer, be sufficient to defray the amount leviable. shall be seized and sold before any property is seized in execution of the warrant.

(3) Where no movable property of the owner is found or where the amount realized by sale of movable property seized under subsection (2) is insufficient to defray the amount leviable, such movable property as can be found in or upon the property to which the warrant relates shall be seized and sold.

(4) Where no movable property has been seized and sold under the preceding provisions of this section or where the proceeds of sale of any movable property so seized is insufficient to defray the amount leviable, the collector or other officer shall seize and sell the rents and profits from the property to which the warrant relates, for a period sufficient in the opinion of such collector or other officer to defray the amount recoverable.

(5) Where no such rents and profits are found or where the amount realized by the sale of movable property under subsection (2) or subsection (3) or rents and profits under subsection (4) is insufficient to defray the amount leviable, the collector or other officer, in accordance with such direction as the Secretary shall issue in that behalf shall seize the immovable property to which the warrant relates.

(6) Upon the seizure of such immovable property such Secretary shall cause notice of seizure to be served on, or left at the premises of the occupier of the property whether he is the owner or tenant of the property seized. The said notice shall intimate that the property seized shall be vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha on a date to be specified in the notice, if the rates and costs due thereof are not paid before such date. The date to be specified shall be a date after the expiry of a period of twenty-eight days from the date of seizure but not later than forty-two days from the date of such seizure.

(7) The Secretary shall cause a notice to be published in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area letting out the immovable properties seized under subsection (5), of the dates specified in the notice under subsection (6) on which such property shall be vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha, if all the rates, taxes, rents or fees, as the case may be, and costs due thereof are not paid before such date. This notice shall be published at least twenty-four days before the specified date referred to in subsection (6).

(8) No collector or other officer shall be liable in damage by reason of his failure to carry out any seizure and sale in accordance with the provisions of this section, unless the person who claims such damages proves to the satisfaction of the Court that at the time when that person's immovable property was being seized he or some other person on his behalf pointed out to the collector or officer free and unclaimed property which would have been sufficient to defray that amount leviable and which should lawfully have been seized in the first instance as hereinbefore provided, and that the collector or officer failed to seize the property so pointed.

(9) No seizure of any immovable property under subsection (5) shall be deemed to be invalid or be impeached or affected by reason that the order in which property must be seized had not been followed or movable property that could be seized and sold had not been seized and sold unless the person who makes such application had made written declaration to the collector or officer and the Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha setting out free and unclaimed property which would have been sufficient to defray the amount leviable and which could lawfully have been seized in the first instance as hereinbefore provided and that the collector or officer or such Secretary failed to seize the property as declared.

Sale of movable 163. (1) The movable property seized in execution of any warrant issued

under this Part, shall be sold by public auction in accordance with the provisions of this section by the collector or officer to whom the warrant was issued or by some other person authorized in that behalf by the Secretary.

(2) No property which in the opinion of the collector or officer seizing such property exceeds rupees one thousand in value shall be sold under this section (a) except after the expiry of a period of twenty-four days from the date of such seizure; and (b) unless notice of the date time and place fixed for the sale has, not less than eleven days before the date so fixed, been published in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating in Sri Lanka.

(3) The Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall cause any movable property seized in execution of any warrant to be sold within a period of sixty days from the date of such seizure.

(4) No property seized in execution of any warrant shall be sold under this section if at or before the time fixed for the sale of such property payment of the amount and of the costs recoverable under the warrant is duly made to the Secretary.

Surplus of sale.

164. Where any movable property seized in execution of a warrant is sold under this Part, the Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall, after deducting from the proceeds of sale the amount, and cost leviable under the warrant, on application made by the owner of the property or joint owners, pay the surplus, if any, to the owner or owners as the case may be:

Provided, however, that where no such application is made before the expiry of one year from the date of the sale of any movable property, the amount of such surplus shall be credited to the Pradeshiya Sabha Fund and no person shall thereafter be entitled to demand or receive such amount.

Power to break open houses.

165. The person to whom any warrant under this Part is addressed may break open in the day time any house or building for the purpose of seizing property in pursuance of such warrant.

Default in the payment of rate or tax.

166.(1) In every case where no movable property of any description other than property referred to in section 160 can be found or where the collector or other officer to whom the warrant is issued, reports' that it is impracticable to seize movable property, the Secretary shall serve a written notice in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule hereto on the person who had made default in the payment of the rate or tax, calling upon him to pay such rate or tax along with the warrant cost within a period of thirty days from the date of service of the notice and informing him that in the event of an ' default in the payment of the rate or tax and costs within that period, steps will be taken for the seizure and sale of the building or land in respect of which the rate or tax is due.

(2) In default of compliance by any person with any notice served on him under subsection (1) within the time specified in such notice, the Secretary shall certify the aggregate amount due from that person to the Magistrate's Court where the amount of rate or tax does not exceed rupees one thousand five hundred, and to the District Court where the rate or tax due exceeds one thousand five hundred rupees within whose jurisdiction the property lies and upon such application being made, and the Court shall issue to the fiscal a writ for the recovery of such amount or rates or taxes and costs by the seizure and sale of such immovable property.

(3) The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to the seizure and sale of property by the fiscal in execution of a writ issued by Court shall apply to the seizure and sale of immovable property for the recovery of the sum certified by the Secretary.

(4) For the purpose of the application of such provisions, the sum so specified shall be deemed to be due on a decree entered by the Court and the Secretary shall be deemed to be the judgment-creditor and the person liable to pay such sum shall be deemed to be the judgment-debtor.

(5) Every sum paid or recovered under this section shall be credited to the Pradeshiya Sabha Fund.

Closure order by Magistrate.

167.(1) Where a person convicted by any Court for the offence of using any premises for any trade or business without a licence issued in that behalf under this Act or under any by-law made thereunder, continues to use such premises without a licence for such trade or business, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, a Magistrate may, upon an application for a closure order made by the Chairman or Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha or any officer authorized in that behalf by such Chairman or Secretary, as the case may be, order the closure of such trade or business at such premises, until such time such person obtains a licence from the Pradeshiya

Sabha.

(2) In any proceedings under subsection (1), a certificate issued by the Chairman or Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha or any officer authorized in that behalf by such Chairman or Secretary, as the case may be, setting out that the person mentioned in the certificate, continues to use such premises without obtaining a licence for any trade or business, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) In any case where such person fails to comply with the closure order issued under subsection (1), the Magistrate shall forthwith order the Fiscal of the Court requiring and authorizing such fiscal before a date specified in such order not being a date earlier than three or later than seven clear days from the date of issue of such order, to close any trade or business at such premises. Such order shall be sufficient authority for the said fiscal or any police officer authorized by him in that behalf, to enter the premises with such assistants as the fiscal or such officer shall deem necessary to close any trade or business at such premises.

PART VI

170. The Chairman may, in case of necessity during the course of any year, reduce or increase the expenditure under any head, or transfer the moneys appropriated under one head to any other head, in the budget or in any supplementary budget adopted for that year, but, so however, that the total amount or expenditure sanctioned by such budget is not exceeded.

Rules as to administration of
Fund and property.

171. The administration by a Pradeshiya Sabha of the Pradeshiya Sat-ha Fund and of the property vested in, or used or occupied by, the Pradeshiya Sabha, shall be further subject to such rules of procedure as may be made under this section for prescribing

(a) the form in which estimates and budgets shall be prepared;

(b) the period within which, and the manner in which, the approval of the Minister or of the Assistant Commissioner shall be obtained in any matter connected with a budget, which requires such approval;

(c) the steps to be taken in any matter connected with a budget in the event of its being disapproved by the Minister or the Assistant Commissioner;

(d) the form in which books of accounts shall be prepared and kept by a Pradeshiya Sabha;

(e) the form of the periodical statements of accounts which shall be prepared by a Pradeshiya Sabha;

(f) the manner in which, the intervals at which, and the persons by whom the books, accounts, documents and other records of a Pradeshiya Sabha, the work of construction, maintenance or repair undertaken or executed by a Pradeshiya Sabha, and the lands and buildings vested in or used or occupied by a Pradeshiya Sabha shall be inspected; and

(g) the mode of giving notice within the limits of a Pradeshiya Sabha of the financial proposals of a Pradeshiya Sabha, and of publishing the periodical statements of accounts.

Audit of accounts 172.(1) Article 154 of the Constitution shall apply to the audit of the land surcharge. accounts of every Pradeshiya Sabha.

(2) Every Pradeshiya Sabha shall pay to the Government, as a contribution towards the cost of such audit, a fee according to such rates as may from time to time be determined by the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance.

(3) In auditing the accounts of a Pradeshiya Sabha under this section, the Auditor-General shall disallow every item of the accounts which is contrary to law, and surcharge the same on the person making or authorizing the making of the illegal payment, and shall charge against any person the amount of any deficiency or loss incurred by the negligence or misconduct of that person and any sum which ought to have been, but is not, brought into account by that person and shall in each case certify the amount due from such person and communicate his decision in writing to such person through the Commissioner of Local Government. The communication shall be transmitted by the Commissioner of Local Government to such person by registered post, and if so transmitted shall be deemed to be received by such person at the time when the letter containing the decision would be delivered in the ordinary course or post, and in proving that such letter was posted it shall be sufficient to prove that such letter was properly addressed and put into the post:

Provided that no expenses incurred by a Pradeshiya Sabha shall be disallowed by the Auditor-General if such expenses have been sanctioned by the Minister.

(4) Where any item of the accounts of a Pradeshiya Sabha relating to any expenditure authorized by a resolution of that Pradeshiya Sabha is disallowed by the Auditor-General as being contrary to law under subsection (3) of this section, the Chairman of that Pradeshiya Sabha and every other member of that Pradeshiya Sabha who voted in favour of such resolution shall each be deemed to be a person who made or authorized the making of the payment for the purpose of that subsection.

(5) Before making any surcharge or disallowance against any person the Auditor-General shall afford an opportunity to such person to be heard or to make any representation with regard to the matter which he may think fit, and shall in the event of his making such surcharge or disallowance, furnish such person in writing, on application being made to him for that purpose, with the reasons for his decision in respect of such surcharge or disallowance.

(a) Any person aggrieved by any surcharge or disallowance may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal, and the Court of Appeal may either confirm such surcharge or disallowance if it is of opinion that surcharge is not in accordance with the law, or modify or set aside such surcharge or disallowance.

(b) Every appeal under paragraph (a) shall be presented, prosecuted, and enforced within the time and in the manner and subject to the rules prescribed for and observed in appeal from interlocutory orders of District Courts.

(a) In lieu of an appeal under subsection (6), any person aggrieved by any surcharge or disallowance may within thirty days of the date on which the decision of the Auditor-General is communicated to him, appeal against such decision to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister and it shall be lawful for such Secretary, upon any such appeal, to decide the question at issue according to the merits of the case.

(b) The Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister may by order direct the recovery from the person making such appeal, the whole or any portion of the amount surcharged or disallowed, if he thinks that there are grounds therefor, and if he finds that any surcharge or disallowance has been lawfully made but that the subject matter thereof was incurred under such circumstances as to make it fair and equitable that the surcharge or disallowance shall be remitted, he may by order direct that the same shall be remitted, but that the amount of costs and expenses which may have been incurred by the Auditor- General in the enforcing of such surcharge or disallowance or such portion of it as may be determined by the Secretary, shall be recovered from such person.

(8) Every sum certified to be due from any person by the Auditor-General as aforesaid, shall be paid by such person to the Commissioner of Local Government within fourteen days after the decision of the Auditor-General has been communicated to such person unless there is an appeal against the decision; and if such sum is not so paid and there is no such appeal, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Local Government to recover the sum due from such person in the manner specified in subsection (9) or subsection (10).

(9) If any sum referred to in subsection (8) is not paid within the time limit allowed therefor by that subsection to the Commissioner of Local Government by the person from whom it is due, such Commissioner may make an application to the District Court within whose jurisdiction such person resides, for the recovery of such sum by seizure and sale of the immovable property of such person and upon such application being made, the Court shall issue to the fiscal a writ for the recovery of such sum by the seizure and sale of such immovable property. The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to the seizure and sale of immovable property by the fiscal in execution of a writ issued by a Court and to the making and adjudication of claims in respect of immovable property seized by the fiscal shall apply to the seizure and sale of immovable property for the recovery of the sums specified in the Commissioner's application and to the making and adjudication of claims in respect of immovable property seized for the recovery of such sum. For the purpose of the application of such provisions, the sum so specified shall be deemed to be due on a decree entered by the Court and such Commissioner shall be deemed to be the judgment creditor and the person liable to pay such sum shall be deemed to be the judgment-debtor.

(10) Where the Commissioner of Local Government is of the opinion in any case that recovery from any person of any sum referred to in subsection (8) by seizure and sale of such person's immovable property is impracticable or inexpedient, or where the full amount of such sum has not been so recovered, such Commissioner may issue a certificate containing particulars of the amount due from such person and the name and last known place of business or residence of such person to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the place in which such person resides. The Magistrate shall thereupon summon such person before him to show cause why proceedings for the recovery of the amount due should not be taken against such person and if no sufficient cause is shown by such person, the amount due shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such defaulter for an offence punishable with a fine only or not punishable with imprisonment, and may be recovered accordingly.

(11) Any amount directed to be recovered from or such person by any order made by the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister under this section may forthwith be recovered by the Commissioner of Local Government in the same manner as any sum certified by the Auditor-General is recoverable under the provisions of this section.

(12) The correctness or validity of any certificate or surcharge or disallowance made by the Auditor-General under subsection (3) or an order made by the Secretary of the Ministry of the Minister under subsection (7) or the certificate given by the Commissioner of Local Government under subsection (10) of this section shall not be called in question in any District Court or Magistrate's Court in any proceedings for the recovery of any sum due under this section.

(13) Every sum paid or recovered under this section other than any sum paid or recovered as cost and expenses incurred in the enforcement of any surcharge or disallowance, shall be credited to the Pradeshiya Sabha Fund of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
